11. Monday Night Film Series presents LA LA Land (May 1) & Julieta (May 8)

LA LA Land

May 1, 2017, 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Director: Damien Chazelle

USA, 2016

English

128 minutes

Principal cast: Ryan Gosling, Emma Stone, John Legend and Rosemarie DeWitt

Set in modern day Los Angeles, this modern take on the Hollywood musical comes from Damien Chazelle, the Academy Award-nominated writer and director of Whiplash. LA LA Land tells the story of Mia (Emma Stone), an aspiring actress, who serves lattes to movie stars as a barista at a local coffee shop, and Sebastian (Ryan Gosling), a dedicated jazz musician, who plays dingy bars in order to scrape by. Both characters are struggling to make ends meet in a city known for crushing hopes and breaking hearts in a film about everyday life that explores the joy and pain of pursuing your dreams. The two meet and fall in love, but, as success mounts, the dreams they worked so hard to maintain threaten to tear them apart.

All of Chazelle's key collaborators were clearly in total sync with the project's aims. Composer Justin Hurwitz, who worked on both the director's previous films, has delivered an LP's worth of buoyant, charming tunes, mostly in a jazzy vein, with Benj Pasek and Justin Paul supplying the lyrics. Production designer David Wasco and costume designer Mary Zophres adroitly supplied touches of the old and new in an elegant way, while choreographer Mandy Moore similarly danced a stylistic tightrope that greatly helped Chazelle achieve his aim of delivering a welcome gift of vintage goods in a dazzling new package.

Julieta

May 8, 2017 - 7:30 pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Pedro Almodóvar

SPAIN, 2015

Spanish w/English subtitles

99 minutes

With: Dario Grandinetti, Daniel Grao, Inma Cuesta, Adriana Ugarte, Michelle Jenner, Emma Suárez, Rossy de Palma

Spanish maestro Pedro Almodóvar (Talk to Her, All about My Mother, Volver) is renowned for his ability to move effortlessly from high drama to high farce, exploring the contradictions of human needs and desire through a range of styles and tones. As one of the cinema's greatest makers of films about women, it is only fitting that for his latest and 20th feature he has chosen to adapt the work of Nobel Prize winner Alice Munro. Mining three stories from Munro's exquisite collection Runaway and relocating them to Spain, Almodóvar creates a marvellously textured tale that examines the strained relationship between a mother and daughter.

When we first meet Julieta (Emma Suárez), she is a 55-year-old teacher about to move to Lisbon with her husband, Lorenzo (Dario Grandinetti, Wild Tales, Talk to Her), until an unexpected encounter brings an end to those plans and, for reasons unbeknownst to Lorenzo, Julieta insists she must remain in Madrid. Almodóvar then plunges us into the past, where Julieta (now played by Adriana Ugarte) is an effervescent and beautiful young woman who, on a train one late winter night, meets and is enchanted by a handsome young man, Xoan (Daniel Grao). In short order, Julieta becomes pregnant, moves to Xoan's idyllic fishing village in Galicia, marries him and begins to raise their daughter, Anitá. In the full glow of her happiness, it seems that nothing could possibly go wrong.

And so the film moves forward and backward through time as it chronicles Julieta's relationship and eventual rupture with her beloved daughter (played alternately by Priscilla Delgado and Blanca Pares), while in the present Lorenzo follows her around Madrid, intent on unraveling the mystery behind her sudden decision. Evoking such earlier Almodóvar films as High Heels and All about My Mother, Julieta reflects on the magic of chance encounters and the fragility of relationships in the face of long-buried secrets.

This year, 30 limited release, independent, foreign, and Canadian films will be shown. Admission is $7/film, but a yearly film society membership reduces admission cost to $4/film. The series is open to all. Memberships are available at Tilley 102 every Monday night. For further info, contact NB Film Co-op at 455-1632 or info@nbfilmcoop.com, or visit <http://nbfilmcoop.com/exhibition/monday-night-film-series>. ## Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Call for Submissions: FAA Artists In Residence Summer 2017

The Fredericton Arts Alliance invites submissions for our Sixteenth Artist in Residence Summer Series. Residents will receive a $400 honorarium and can sell their work. We seek emerging and experienced artists working in any media, including architecture, performance, music, dance, electronic media, literary arts, visual art and fine craft. We encourage artists from diverse cultural backgrounds.

This summer our theme will be Canada 150. We invite artists to reflect, as they work, on the ideas, aspirations and values that have characterized this country over the century and a half since Confederation or what Canada 150 means to them. As different artists in varied media focus their creative energies on this theme, we hope to engender discussion among the artists and with members of the public – both local and visitors, who visit the residencies over the summer.

The residences, two at a time, will take place in the new Art in the Box shipping container, in Officer's Square, from June 26 to September 3. Each residency lasts for one week. Interested artists should indicate how they intend to approach the theme in their written application. Application forms and guidelines are available on the Fredericton Arts Alliance website: www.frederictonartsalliance.ca. More information is available via email at president@frederictonartsalliance.ca.

Applications must be received no later than 4pm on May 19, 2017.

The Fredericton Arts Alliance hopes to be able to mount an exhibition of work produced over the summer, but that is not yet confirmed. Back to top.

2. Call for Submissions: Art in Schools Canada 150 Projects

This fall, the Fredericton Arts Alliance will sponsor five art-related projects in area schools focused in some way on Canada 150. Teachers and artists: put your imaginations to work. Artists will receive a $500 honorarium and are expected to spend about 25 hours in the school working with students and teachers. The program will cover materials up to approximately $500. All media are encouraged – painting, film, sculpture, music, dance, writing, electronic media, photography, internet-based. Be creative.

Under the terms of the grant from Canada 150, approved projects must reflect, in some way, on Canada's 150th birthday as a nation. This allows huge flexibility. To start you thinking:

- Design Confederation era costumes;
- Video dances of 1867;
- Reflect on Confederation as a blip in the much longer aboriginal history of the geography we now call Canada;
- Build something using the tools of 1867;
- Study the music of the day and perform it for the school;
- Paint a mural showing 150 years of changes in the school community;
- Learn the games children played in 1867 and make them into video games;
- Document the last 150 years of your school's physical site;
- Look at how artists have portrayed Canada over 150 years.
- Create a drama of Champlain, scurvy, St. Croix Island and the Order of Good Cheer. Film it!
- Start with Bliss Carman's poetry and paint his visual images.
- What works for you? Your school? Your students? Your artistic impulses?

Students in ten schools will be able to delve into some facet of 150 years of Canada, in a way appropriate to their age and the skills and interests of the artists and teachers who apply. Participating projects must provide at least one photo of their project and at least one success story at the end of the program.

An independent jury will choose the ten successful proposals. Projects will run in the fall of 2017 and must be completed by January 31. The formal application documents are available on the FAA website, www.frederictonartsalliance.ca.

The application deadline is June 1, 2017. Projects will be selected in June to allow a September start.
