1. Bruce Newman's Solo Exhibition at the Fredericton Public Library Dec 3 - Jan 20

Known for his representational landscape paintings, Bruce Newman, is pleased to announce a solo exhibition and sale of his works at the Fredericton Public Library. He is particularly excited about this show, his eighth solo exhibition, for the opportunity to share seventeen of his paintings with collectors and friends in his home town. Roughly half of these works were painted this year, many on location and depicting well-known Fredericton scenes. The others are favorites from his personal collection, many of which have not previously been exhibited or offered for acquisition.

Newman is the founder of Plein air Painters of New Brunswick, an elected member of the Society of Canadian Artists, and a juried member of Oil Painters of America. His work is held in private collections in North America and Europe and he has had his work accepted into the prestigious Oil Painters of America Exhibition.

This exhibition runs from December 3, 2016 until January 20, 2017. The opening reception is open to the public and all are welcome to attend on December 15 at 7pm at the Fredericton Public Library, located at 12 Carleton Street in Fredericton. The library is open daily from 10am until 5pm and until 9pm on Wednesdays and Thursdays. Back to top.

2. Botanicals Gift Shop, Studio & Gallery 20 Days of Christmas Sale Dec 5-24

Botanicals Gift Shop is celebrating their 23rd Anniversary with the 20 Days of Christmas Sale. Each day we will feature a different medium at 20% savings. (i.e. metal, wood, glass, pottery etc.) This sale runs from December 5 to 24 at 2pm. See our web page under happenings or our Facebook page for more details. Botanicals is located at 610-612 Queen Street. Call 454-6101 for more information. Back to top.

3. Charlotte Street Arts Centre Holiday Open House Dec 8 (postponed from Dec 1)

The Charlotte Street Arts Centre has postponed this event to Thursday, December 8 from 5-7pm. The Holiday Open House will still be running the same events as follows:

Studios / Galleries:

- Take a peek into the studios of artists: Katie FitzRandolph, Christopher Harding, Eric Gonza, Karen Burk and Donna Mulholland – where you will be able to visually intake the creative process of their artwork.

Exhibitions:

- Charlotte Glencross Gallery: Art in the Centre by Margaret Bannister, Guy Vezina, Lawrence Peters, Donna Mulholland, Katie FitzRandolph, Christopher Harding, Laurie Winter and Karen Burk. Throughout this group installation there is an assortment of mediums: acrylic, watercolour, oil paint, and ceramics.
- Penny Gallery: Open Your Art by Angela Black's students. Angela runs her own business that offers private art classes for all ages. This exhibition displays the work of many of her students that includes the mediums of acrylic, pouring method, watercolour, paper maché, mosaics, and sculptures!

Christmas Crafts:

- The MacLean School for Early Childhood in room 102 will be open for all kids to have some fun creating Christmas crafts to decorate the Charlotte Street Arts Centre tree with homemade garland and ornaments! Laura Lee will also be available to any parents wanting to take the opportunity to learn more about the MacLean School program.

Food & More:

- At the end of the evening, don't forget to fill your bellies down at Milda's Pizza & More with some delicious, hearty food. While relishing in some fantastic pizza or delectable croissants, enjoy the current exhibition installed in Milda's Café by Alyssa Donaldson. The installation displays Alyssa's eye for photography in her selection of digital negative photos.

Join for an evening of celebration with a warm cup of apple cider and refreshments. Free event to the public! Back to top.

4. BILLIE: Undercurrents in Atlantic Canadian Visual Culture Available Dec 8

The latest issue of BILLIE: Undercurrents in Atlantic Canadian Visual Culture, an award-winning journal of visual culture published by the Beaverbrook Art Gallery, will be available on December 8. In this third issue, BILLIE examines the contentious issue of "Outsider Art", which may be defined as art created by self-taught artists outside the cultural mainstream.

Launched in 2015 and taking its name from the late Marion "Billie" McCain, BILLIE explores what is below the surface of contemporary art in Atlantic Canada and the diverse and complex narratives flowing from the region's particular histories, peoples and landscape. Funded with the support of McCain family members, the Harrison McCain Foundation, and the McCain Foundation; BILLIE is available at the Gallery shop, at outlets around the region, and across Canada through Magazines Canada. 6. Cinema Politica Fredericton presents In Prison My While Life Dec 9

On Friday, December 9 at 7pm at Conserver House, located at 180 Saint John Street, Cinema Politica Fredericton presents In Prison My While Life (Marc Evans / 2009 / 90').

William Francome is a fairly typical, white, middle-class guy, except for the fact that he is about to embark on a journey into the dark heart of the American judicial system: the tangled world of renowned Death Row prisoner Mumia Abu-Jamal. Former Black Panther, Abu-Jamal, an internationally celebrated black writer and radio journalist, was arrested the day Francome was born. William is now 25 years old. Mumia is still on death row.

There will be an optional discussion after the film. Everyone is welcome. Films are free, but donations welcome. The trailer can be viewed at <https://www.cinemapolitica.org/screening/fredericton/prison-my-whole-life-0>. Please note: the screening room is wheelchair accessible but the washrooms are up the stairs. Back to top.

11. Book Launch of A Vision in Wood and Stone: The Architecture of Mount Allison University Dec 10

Westminster Books will be hosting a book launch of John Leroux and Thaddeus Holownia's latest volume on New Brunswick architecture A Vision in Wood and Stone: The Architecture of Mount Allison University. The launch will take place on Saturday, December 10 from 1 to 2pm at Westminster Books, located at 445 King Street, and both author and artist will be present.

This is a fascinating 175-year story of one of Canada's finest universities and one of the most important collections of buildings in New Brunswick, the project was a rewarding collaboration between Leroux as author/researcher, Holownia as photographer, and Gaspereau Press as designer and publisher. Beautifully designed in a hardcover format, the book will be of strong appeal to anyone who attended or has family who attended Mount Allison, as well as those with an interest in New Brunswick history and architecture. We welcome you to join us in celebrating a wonderful cultural and educational institution, as well as the work of a renowned NB photographer and writer team. Back to top.

12. Shake the Shivers: A Semi-Formal Craft Christmas Dec 10

We had so much fun at the Halloween Bash that we couldn't resist throwing a Christmas party! This time we will be shaking your winter shivers with a semi-formal event. The evening will include lots of fine crafted beer and live music throughout the night. Music will be provided by our house band Extraordinary Measures, our friend Josh Bravener, as well as Tokyo Valentine to wrap up the night!. Milda's Pizza food truck filled our tummies last time and you can expect them to satisfy your tummies and taste buds once again.

We are providing you with a free shuttle from our brewery to The Tannery downtown between 12:30-1:30am, where you can then wander into a bar or a taxi to finish off the night! Bring a non-perishable food item for the Food Bank and you will get half off your first drink!

Doors open at 7pm and music kicks off at 8pm. Be sure to purchase your tickets beforehand at <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/shake-the-shivers-maybee-brew-christmas-party-tickets-29406151591>. Tickets are available online for $12 and $20 at the door.

21. Monday Night Film Series presents The Dressmaker (Dec 12)

December 12, 2016 - 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

The Dressmaker

Jocelyn Moorhouse

118 mins

AUSTRALIA

2015

English

Cast: Kate Winslet, Judy Davis, Liam Hemsworth

Tilly Dunnage (Winslet) arrives in the small town of Dungatar like a gunslinger: broad-brimmed hat on her head, sleek pumps on her feet, trusty Singer sewing machine at her side. Driven away when she was just 10 years old for supposedly committing a heinous crime, the resilient Tilly found her way to Paris, where she trained under legendary designer Madeleine Vionnet. She has come back to look after her ailing mother, Molly (Judy Davis, The Young and Prodigious T.S. Spivet, To Rome With Love), but, with her beguiling, form fitting dresses, she's soon turning heads at the town rugby game — most notably the one atop the broad shoulders of star player Teddy McSwiney (Liam Hemsworth, Cut Bank).

When Tilly is hired to design and custom-make haute couture for the more rebellious local ladies, a battle line is drawn: on one side, those who love Tilly's progressive style, and on the other side, Dungatar's conservative busybody contingent. As tension between these camps escalates, Tilly's shadowy past becomes her enemies' most potent weapon — but this fearsome fashionista has resolved to never let Dungatar get the best of her again. Winslet exudes femme-fatale danger and sexiness as Tilly — she's Clint Eastwood meets Rita Hayworth. And Moorhouse, working with co-writer P.J. Hogan in adapting Rosalie Ham's novel, infuses The Dressmaker with a perfect blend of glamour and edginess, generating laughter and intrigue right up to the explosive finale.

This year, 30 limited release, independent, foreign, and Canadian films will be shown. Admission is $7/film, but a yearly film society membership reduces admission cost to $4/film. The series is open to all. Memberships are available at Tilley 102 every Monday night. For further info, contact NB Film Co-op at 455-1632 or info@nbfilmcoop.com, or visit <http://www.nbfilmcoop.com/exhibition/monday-night-film-series>. The Writer-in-Residence will be available to visit community organizations, and to travel anywhere in New Brunswick to meet with writing groups, give a lecture, or read from his work to a public audience.

Maharaj is a prolific author, with five novels and three short story collections. Maharaj's latest novel, The Amazing Absorbing Boy, won the 2011 Toronto Book Award as well as the 2010 Trillium Fiction Prize, and has been voted as a CBC Canada Reads Top 10 books for the Ontario region. Other notable works by Maharaj include A Perfect Pledge, The Lagahoo's Apprentice, Homer in Flight, and The Picture of Nobody.

Maharaj immigrated to Canada in the early 1990s. He completed his second M.A. at the University of New Brunswick in 1993, and happily returns to his old stomping grounds as Writer-in-Residence this year. In 2013, Maharaj was awarded the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal, a distinction that recognizes significant contributions and achievements by Canadian citizens. The highly acclaimed author often mentors young writers who write diaspora dialogues, and has written for The Washington Post, The Globe and Mail, and The Toronto Star, among other publications. Workshops | Classes | Art Camps

1. Zine & Button Making Night at the Fredericton Public Library

Join the Fredericton Youth Feminists on Thursday, December 8 from 6:30-8:30pm at the Fredericton Public Library for a fun night of zine and button making! This community event will take place upstairs in The HUB. Materials, instructions, artistic assistance (from some of our members), and snacks will be provided for you.

Historically, zines have come from a place of social justice and resistance of the status quo, and have acted as an alternative media source to spread radical ideas. There will be zines on sale throughout the night, and hopefully pins as well. This space will be a safe space, and it is also wheelchair accessible. There are gender neutral and wheelchair accessible bathrooms! For more information visit <https://www.facebook.com/events/888751177926364/>. Back to top.

2. Give the Gift of Learning

This holiday season choose a Leisure Learning course for someone on your list. There's a wide variety of fun, educational and creative courses to select from - everything from creative writing to upholstery to our series of digital photography classes. Italian, French, or Spanish courses are always popular choices. If you're looking for something shorter, consider our series of workshops in knitting, printmaking, and bookbinding!

Whatever you're looking for, there's something for everyone! For more information or to register, please visit UNB's College of Extended Learning's website at <http://www.unb.ca/cel/leisurelearning> or call 453-4646. Back to top.

3. Advanced Beginner Traditional Rug Hooking Class

If you've ever wanted to discover new methods related to acrylics and mixed media than this is your class! Visual artist and high school art teacher Ron Leger has over 25 years of experience and would love to impart his wisdom on you! This course is recommended for intermediate level participants. Material cost is $15.

Print IT!

Thursdays, 6-9pm (Starting Thursday, February 16)
Kent Jensen (10 seats)

Have you ever wondered if something was silkscreened? Well artist Kent Jensen will be opening up NBCCD's textile studio to show you the funky and colourful world of creative printing. You will acquire a basic, hands-on understanding of the silk screening process. This class is all about using your creativity and your hands, so don't be afraid to get messy! Find your personal style and make pieces that are as unique as you. You won't want to miss out on this artistic opportunity to "Print IT!" here at NBCCD. Material cost is $45 (price may vary with the size and number of pieces created).

Intermediate Jewellery

Thursdays, 6-9pm (Starting Thursday, February 16)
Kristianne LeBreton (8 seats)

Have you dreamed of working in a genuine jeweller's studio? Have you always wanted to work hands on with other creative individuals and instructors? Then you need to quickly sign up for this amazing seven-week experience with the fabulous Kristianne LeBreton. Students will learn the technique of stone setting. Students will learn how to build either a beautiful ring or unique pendant with a stone setting. Techniques such as shaping, measuring, soldering and cleaning will also be taught in this fantastic course. Material cost is $50-$100.

Introduction to Weaving: Rigid Heddle Basics Workshop

Saturday, March 18 and 25, 9am – 4pm
Anna Mathis (6 seats)

Have you ever wanted to learn how to weave? In this two-day workshop you will be experiencing this historic craft first hand by designing, setting up a rigid heddle loom and creating a personalized hand woven scarf! Looms and tools will be provided for this weaving introduction. Professional textiles artist Anna Mathis will wow you with her skills, creativity and attention to detail. Come inside and beat the winter blues with this two-day workshop! Material cost $45.

Make Your Own Dress Form

Saturday, February 25, 9am – 4pm
Sarah MacIntyre (6 seats)

Have you ever wished you had a twin? Someone who could stand still for you while you fit that dress or hem that skirt? Well you need to take this one-day workshop with sewing queen Sarah MacIntyre. Use brown paper tape to make your own dress form, as you learn techniques and tips. Please come to class wearing appropriate under garments and have a tight fitting tee shirt with sleeves that you won't mind cutting apart. In no time at all a personalized dress form will be sitting in front of you! Material cost is $10 – (In addition, please bring a roll of painters tape, a tight fitting T-shirt that can be cut and scissors.)

Sew Much Fun!

Tuesdays, 6-9pm (Starting February 14)
Sarah MacIntyre (8 seats)

Do you want to create your own unique look? This seven-week class teaches the basics of sewing while you create interesting and inspiring projects. Sarah MacIntyre shows you the fundamentals of operating a sewing machine and the knowledge to go home and use your own with confidence. You won't want to miss out on this unique class being held in NBCCD's infamous fashion studio. So thread up some needles, get those scissors sharpened and make this winter your most fashionable yet! Material cost is $60.

Elements of Art

Wednesdays, 6-9pm (Starting February 15)
Jared Betts (8 seats)

Did you know that all artists have the same elements of art with which to work? Those elements are line, shape, form, color, value, texture, and space. Therefore, each piece of art in the world is done with one or more of these seven elements. New Brunswick artist Jared Betts references these ideas in his own practice, and wants to impart his knowledge on you! In this practical course you will separate the elements of art to study them, to see how they look and how they can be used in making art. Often these components are combined when they are used in painting, sculpture, or other forms of creative work. Each week will focus on a different element of art, breaking it down into understandable and useful terms. If you've ever wanted to know the makings of great pieces of work, then this class is just for you! Material cost is $50-$100 (Depending on the type of supplies purchased) Students will need: 2 pencils, a variety of erasers, sharpener, watercolour kit or pencil crayons, scissors, watercolour pad, and sketchbook.

Traditional Native Woodcarving

Tuesdays and Thursdays, 6-9pm (Starting February 14)

This class will have 14 sessions to accommodate the amount of time needed to complete your studio project

Dan Robichaud (7 seats)

There is nothing like the sound of a sharp chisel cutting into a fresh piece of Atlantic hardwood. Nor is there anything like the smell of fresh wood chips scattered beneath your feet. If this is making you want to try woodcarving then we have the class for you! NBCCD instructor Dan Robichaud will teach you the skills needed to carve your very own facemask. Guided supervision and support will help you understand the tools and different types of wood being used. For centuries people around the world have been fascinated with how a raw piece of wood can be transformed into something imaginative and beautiful. You won't want to miss out on this class! Material cost is $50-60 (depending on the size and amount of wood used)

Stacking Ring Workshop

Saturday, February 2, 9am – 4pm

Audrée H-St- Amour (8 seats)

In this unique one-day workshop, you will learn how to make stacking rings from sterling silver wire. Those rings can be worn together, as a set, or alone. You will learn to texture metal, to solder and to properly finish your piece of jewellery. A minimum of four narrow rings will be made by each student and will surely add a touch of sparkle to anyone who wears them. This course is geared to a beginner level artist; so don't be afraid to sign up! Material cost is $15-$40 (Depending on size and design of individual projects)

Bracelet Workshop

Saturday, March 4, 9am – 4pm

Audrée H-St- Amour (8 seats)

In this class, students will create a bracelet using jump rings connecting one after another. You will learn how to make a jump ring, by learning how to cut, and how to assemble this unique chainmail bracelet. Your project uses minimal tools and equipment, does not require soldering and can easily be reproduced at home! If you want to get a taste of a genuine jewellery studio but can only commit to a small amount of time then you need to sign up for this course fast! Material cost is $30-$60 (Depending on size and design of individual projects)

The Wonderful World of Water Colours Workshop

February 25 and February 26, 9am – 4pm

Jane Geurts (12 seats)

Watercolour is a graceful and translucent medium. Light emanates from underneath the paints surface, which connects the viewer to the multiple layers of connected colours. This two-day workshop will teach fundamental principles that relate to great designs and compositions, as well as techniques specific to watercolour. A focus will be placed on intuitive and spontaneous mark making. Students will have the opportunity to put these principles and skills into practice. This class is perfect for any creative beginner or for those with a slightly higher skill level. Basic to intermediate drawing skills are an asset. Material cost is $30, or you may bring your own watercolour supplies.
