3. Thane Dunn's Elvis Birthday Aloha Tour at The Playhouse Jan 8

Fredericton fans have a special way to celebrate Elvis' birthday on January 8, 2017 at 7pm at The Playhouse with Thane Dunn's Elvis Birthday Aloha Tour, a recreation of the King's famous Aloha From Hawaii telecast. From a meticulous replica of Elvis' Aloha costume to the faithful replication of all the Blue Hawaii favourites by the Cadillac Kings, internationally acclaimed Thane Dunn presents an uncanny recreation of this legendary 1973 broadcast.

Just as Elvis donated proceeds from his show to a Hawaiian cancer fund, a portion of every ticket sold will be donated to the Canadian Cancer Society in honour of Dunn's wife, herself an ovarian cancer survivor of 5 years. "Now it's time to give back in the fight against cancer," says Dunn, the multiple winner of the largest international Elvis tribute artist competitions.

Joined by AM/GOLD with their salute to the sounds of the 70's, Thane Dunn's Elvis Birthday Aloha Tour is an evening not to be missed. As an added bonus, concert goers will have the chance to win a trip for two to Hawaii to be drawn on January 30, 2017.

Tickets are now on sale at The Playhouse box office, including VIP seating while it lasts. They make great gifts for the Elvis fan on your list and anyone will enjoy the iconic hits of the Elvis era with live music and superb showmanship. For more information visit: www.thanedunn.ca. 4. Monday Night Film Series presents Little Men (Jan 9) & Last Cab to Darwin (Jan 16)

Little Men

January 9, 2017, 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Director: Ira Sachs

USA, 2015

English

85 minutes

Principal Cast: Michael Barbieri, Theo Taplitz, Paulina García, Greg Kinnear, Jennifer Ehle

The latest from Ira Sachs (Love Is Strange, Keep the Lights On) is a poignant look at the close but fleeting friendship between two boys during their formative years, set against rapid gentrification in New York City. Jake Jardine (Theo Taplitz) is a sensitive, artistic, and lonely kid who moves to Brooklyn with his Manhattanite parents, Kathy (Jennifer Ehle, Zero Dark Thirty, The King's Speech), a psychiatrist, and Brian (Greg Kinnear, Little Miss Sunshine, As Good As it Gets), an out-of-work stage actor. There, he meets Tony Calvelli (Michael Barbieri), a magnetic, fast-talking charmer and aspiring actor whose mother, Lenor (Paulina García, Much Ado About Nothing, Gloria) has inherited the Jardines as the new landlords of her long-standing dress shop. The boys become fast friends and spend carefree summer days roving the streets on their scooters and rollerblades.

The friendship has a particular impact on Jake, who doesn't normally connect with people as easily as Tony does. However, things quickly begin to fall apart when the boys' parents have a falling out over the market value of Lenor's shop. As with Sachs' previous film, Love is Strange, Little Men is a small, personal story with a larger political undercurrent. The writer-director subtly critiques the constant state of economic flux in a city that can swallow whole even the privileged if they hit a run of bad luck.

Cinematographer Óscar Durán keenly alludes to this by observing meaningful details that include the glittering Manhattan cityscape, just out of reach on the other side of the river. Yet Sachs resists oversimplification and sentimentality in favour of nuance. Aided in no small part by superb performances from the entire cast, he portrays his characters with a rare honesty, portraying all sides with impartiality. Little Men is a subtle, intelligent, and deeply moving look at community, family and friendship. It's easily one of the richest and most beautiful films of the year.

Last Cab to Darwin

January 16, 2017, 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Director: Jeremy Sims

Australia, 2015

English

123 minutes

Principal Cast: Michael Caton, Ningali Lawford, Mark Coles Smith, Emma Hamilton, Jacki Weaver

Based on the successful stage play by Reg Cribb, Last Cab to Darwin tells the story of 70-year-old taxi driver Rex (Michael Caton), who is diagnosed with terminal stomach cancer. Rex leaves his loved ones behind, and sets out on a 3,000-mile journey to Darwin in a bid to die on his own terms. Along the way he discovers that before you end your life you've got to live it, and to live it you've got to learn to share it.

Along the way, he picks up the smooth-talking Tilly (aboriginal actor Mark Coles Smith), who is also headed north with dreams of starting a football career. Thus does the euthanasia movie meet the buddy/road movie, a pairing actually encountered once before in Goodbye Solo, although in that case it was the passenger wanting to end it. Rex claims to have no family, but he leaves behind a grumpy neighbour (Ningali Lawford-Wolf) who is clearly the love of his late life.

Gorgeous cinematography from Steve Arnold captures the otherworldly beauty of the Outback as Rex and Tilly bisect the continent. There are sunsets and vistas stunning enough to make a suicidal man think twice; not to mention a few signs, like the literal one at the side of the highway, declaring that all roads are open. But Sims isn't trying to preach here. Last Cab to Darwin is in fact based on the stories of two terminally ill men who sought the treatment; one of them ultimately went through with it and one did not. Both are long dead now, but the film makes the gentle suggestion that what matters more than how you choose to go is what you do in the meantime.

This year, 30 limited release, independent, foreign, and Canadian films will be shown. Admission is $7/film, but a yearly film society membership reduces admission cost to $4/film. The series is open to all. Memberships are available at Tilley 102 every Monday night. For further info, contact NB Film Co-op at 455-1632 or info@nbfilmcoop.com, or visit <http://nbfilmcoop.com/exhibition/monday-night-film-series>. The NB Film Co-op in partnership with the UNB Faculty of Arts and the Toronto Film Festival presents the series. Back to top.

5. Wintersleep with guests The Everywheres at the Fredericton Boyce Farmers' Market Jan 12

The Capital Complex & Shivering Songs in partnership with the Harvest Jazz & Blues Festival presents Wintersleep with guests The Everywheres at the Fredericton Boyce Farmers' Market on Thursday, January 12, 2017. Tickets are available at <https://goo.gl/QNvzQY>.

The JUNO Award-winning band have released five previous full-length records. They took a break after the release and touring of their 2012 album Hello Hum, and, during that time, wrote a wealth of new material in their Montreal studio. The band then carefully curated the 11 songs comprising The Great Detachment and returned to record to Halifax's Sonic Temple with producer Tony Doogan (Belle & Sebastian, Mogwai).

The Great Detachment was primarily recorded live-off-the-floor, adding an organic and transparent aural aesthetic to the collection. It is a rock album overwhelmed with musical warmth which harkens back to the era of Wintersleep's much-loved break-out song "Weighty Ghost". It's a call to their fans to assemble and sing along to a new raft of tunes borne from reflection and changing technologies. Wintersleep has been busy touring Canada and Europe in 2016 and making waves with their video for the debut single, "Amerika".

6. Tactus Album Release Party with Redcastle and District Avenue Jan 12

Help us kick off 2017 with a slightly belated celebration of the release of Tactus' first full-length album, Bending Light! Pick up a shirt and a copy of the album and rock out with us to some new tunes! Joining us will be our friends, REDCASTLE and District Avenue, who have both released new records recently too, so it's basically a massive party to celebrate a whole bunch of awesome new music!

This show takes place at The Capital on January 12 at 9pm. Cover is $8. For more information visit: <https://www.facebook.com/events/563551377174447/>. Back to top.

7. STU Early English Drama Society presents A Mid-Summer Night's Dream Jan 12-14

From January 12-14, amidst the frozen nights and chilling days, the St. Thomas Early English Drama Society invites you to join us in the warm embrace of a pleasant dream. Let the ice melt away around you as we take you on a magical journey filled with fawns, fairies, and rock and roll! This is A Mid-Summer Night's Dream as you've never seen it before.

Performances take place in the Ted Daigle Auditorium from January 12-14 at 7:30pm. Admission is by donation. Back to top.

8. Joel LeBlanc Trio covers the Music of Thelonious Monk at Grimross Brewing Co. Jan 14

On Saturday, January 14 from 8-11pm Grimross Brewing Co. hosts a Jazz night featuring the Joel LeBlanc Trio, who will be covering the music of Thelonious Monk. The cost is $10 at the door.

Joel LeBlanc with Brian Mitton and Lloyd Hanson explore the music of Jazz master, Thelonious Monk. All three musicians are veterans of the Atlantic Jazz community and continue to evolve as improvisers. Monk's music paved the way for many jazz greats and still impacts modern music significantly. Every tune is a gem. Back to top.

9. Abbamania & Night Fever / The Bee Gees & Guests at The Playhouse Jan 17

January 17, 7:30pm

Workshops | Classes | Art Camps

1. Shivering Songs 2017 Songwriter's Intensive Workshop

The Songwriter's Intensive is a professional development opportunity for up and coming songwriters in New Brunswick. Through a partnership between Shivering Songs festival and Charlotte Street Arts Centre, we invite a nationally acclaimed songwriter to work collaboratively with a dozen of New Brunswick's emerging singer/songwriters. This year we are pleased to announce that Ottawa songsmith Jim Bryson will be our lead songwriter.

Throughout the weekend, artists are immersed in a safe, supportive environment in which they experiment, take risks and learn. They work on singing, chord progressions, and more advanced aspects of song writing such as lyrical integrity, crafting a style, performing, etc.

Through working with an experienced, acclaimed songwriter, and in collaboration with fellow musicians, participants have the opportunity to fast-track their skill development and receive real-life advice from someone who was once in their shoes. The weekend is capped off with a live performance at Charlotte Street Arts Centre featuring the workshop participants.

Deadline to Apply: January 9, 2017. To apply, visit: <http://charlottestreetarts.us5.list-manage2.com/track/click?u=10c683562dd0488ec85e3d165&id=05bb114741&e=774e39cb40>. Back to top.

2. Registration Open for the Fredericton Choral Society

The Fredericton Choral Society is a non-auditioned community choir, directed by Heather Dunham. The choir performs works from the larger choral repertoire. The ability to read music is a definite asset, but not mandatory, and singers should be able to carry a tune. We shall be performing the Faure REQUIEM in April, as well as selections of Canadian Folk Songs in honour of Canada's 150th Anniversary. Our practices are held every Tuesday evening, at St. Paul's United Church, corner of York and George Streets from 7:15pm to 9:15pm.

Registration will begin on Tuesday, January 10, 2017.

Fees are $40 per term for individuals, $65 per term for families, and only $10 for students per term. Scores are available for borrowing or for purchase. We look forward to welcoming you. You may register online now with the following link: <http://tinyurl.com/fcsspring2017>. Back to top.

Material cost is $60.

Elements of Art

Wednesdays, 6-9pm (Starting February 15)
Jared Betts (8 seats)

Did you know that all artists have the same elements of art with which to work? Those elements are line, shape, form, color, value, texture, and space. Therefore, each piece of art in the world is done with one or more of these seven elements. New Brunswick artist Jared Betts references these ideas in his own practice, and wants to impart his knowledge on you! In this practical course you will separate the elements of art to study them, to see how they look and how they can be used in making art. Often these components are combined when they are used in painting, sculpture, or other forms of creative work. Each week will focus on a different element of art, breaking it down into understandable and useful terms. If you've ever wanted to know the makings of great pieces of work, then this class is just for you! Material cost is $50-$100 (Depending on the type of supplies purchased) Students will need: 2 pencils, a variety of erasers, sharpener, watercolour kit or pencil crayons, scissors, watercolour pad, and sketchbook.

Traditional Native Woodcarving

Tuesdays and Thursdays, 6-9pm (Starting February 14)

This class will have 14 sessions to accommodate the amount of time needed to complete your studio project

Dan Robichaud (7 seats)

There is nothing like the sound of a sharp chisel cutting into a fresh piece of Atlantic hardwood. Nor is there anything like the smell of fresh wood chips scattered beneath your feet. If this is making you want to try woodcarving then we have the class for you! NBCCD instructor Dan Robichaud will teach you the skills needed to carve your very own facemask. Guided supervision and support will help you understand the tools and different types of wood being used. For centuries people around the world have been fascinated with how a raw piece of wood can be transformed into something imaginative and beautiful. You won't want to miss out on this class! Material cost is $50-60 (depending on the size and amount of wood used)

Stacking Ring Workshop

Saturday, February 2, 9am – 4pm
Audrée H-St- Amour (8 seats)

In this unique one-day workshop, you will learn how to make stacking rings from sterling silver wire. Those rings can be worn together, as a set, or alone. You will learn to texture metal, to solder and to properly finish your piece of jewellery. A minimum of four narrow rings will be made by each student and will surely add a touch of sparkle to anyone who wears them. This course is geared to a beginner level artist; so don't be afraid to sign up! Material cost is $15-$40 (Depending on size and design of individual projects)

Bracelet Workshop

Saturday, March 4, 9am – 4pm
Audrée H-St- Amour (8 seats)

In this class, students will create a bracelet using jump rings connecting one after another. You will learn how to make a jump ring, by learning how to cut, and how to assemble this unique chainmail bracelet. Your project uses minimal tools and equipment, does not require soldering and can easily be reproduced at home! If you want to get a taste of a genuine jewellery studio but can only commit to a small amount of time then you need to sign up for this course fast! Material cost is $30-$60 (Depending on size and design of individual projects)

The Wonderful World of Water Colours Workshop
February 25 and February 26, 9am – 4pm
Jane Geurts (12 seats)

Watercolour is a graceful and translucent medium. Light emanates from underneath the paints surface, which connects the viewer to the multiple layers of connected colours. This two-day workshop will teach fundamental principles that relate to great designs and compositions, as well as techniques specific to watercolour. A focus will be placed on intuitive and spontaneous mark making. Students will have the opportunity to put these principles and skills into practice. This class is perfect for any creative beginner or for those with a slightly higher skill level. Basic to intermediate drawing skills are an asset. Material cost is $30, or you may bring your own watercolour supplies.

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. 2017 Strathbutler Award Applications Open

The Strathbutler Award is a biennial award of $25,000 which recognizes artists and craftspeople who have achieved excellence in their field while having made a substantial contribution over a significant period of time in the province of New Brunswick. Consideration for the Strathbutler Award will be given to both nominations and applications. All submissions will be evaluated by an independent jury of arts professionals, recognised as such by their peers. Applications will be judged on artistic merit, contribution to visual arts and crafts in New Brunswick, and contribution to the greater community. Applications may be made in English or French.

Artists must have resided in New Brunswick for at least five (5) consecutive calendar years immediately prior to submission. Artists currently funded under the midcareer Marie H el ene Allain Fellowship are not eligible for the Strathbutler Award pending filing of Fellowship final report. Artists must meet the definition of a professional artist, an artist who:

- Has specialized training in the field (not necessarily in academic institutions)
- Has produced an independent body of work
- Has made at least three (3) public presentations of work in a professional context in the past ten (10) years

Completed submissions for 2017 Strathbutler Award, including all supporting material, must be postmarked on or before the deadline of January 20, 2017. Late or incomplete applications or nominations will not be accepted. The Foundation cannot accept applications or nominations by fax or email. Please download the application guide for complete information at http://sheilahughmackay.ca/shmf/wp-content/uploads/resources/SHMF_Strathbutler_2017_Eng.pdf. Back to top.

2. Artists Needed for Art Auction at Isaac's Way Restaurant

It's time once again to start reserving your wall space for the 29th Art Auction at Isaac's Way! This round will raise funds for Fredericton kids-in-need from January 30 until May 28. Local art is required to fill 65+ spaces.

Artists have the option of getting back a percentage of the highest bid to help cover the cost of materials. Your work will receive good karma, public visibility, daily exposure, and internet advertising ... all good reasons to join this community initiative! Help us help kids learn to excel in the arts. Email Tina to learn more at isaacs@nbn.net.nb.ca. Back to top.

3. Registration for the 2017 Fredericton Music Festival

The 2017 Fredericton Music Festival will take place April 17 - 28, 2017 at several venues throughout the city. The registration deadline for this year's festival is January 22, 2017.

Registration will take place online from early December to January 22, 2017. The festival website can be found at www.frederictonmusicfestival.org. A Registration Assistance Session will be held at the office of Eastern Designers at 564 Prospect Street, 2nd floor, on Saturday, January 21st, 2017 from 11am – 2 pm. Back to top.

4. The Aesthetica Short Film Festival 2017 Open to Entries

The Aesthetica Short Film Festival 2017 is now open for entries. ASFF provides a platform for emerging and established filmmakers to showcase their work to a wider audience, and is looking for practitioners who are pushing the boundaries of short film forward. Prizes include:

- Screenings at ASFF 2017 (November 8-12, 2017)
- Awards for Best Film in each category, Festival Winner, and People's Choice
- The Northern Film School Award for Best Screenplay (£1,000)
- Opportunities for further exposure through Aesthetica and its online channels

The festival is a hub for industry, hosting over 25 masterclasses, panel discussions, and numerous networking sessions, offering filmmakers the chance to build their contacts list, connect with representatives from major film organisations and promote their work.

ASFF accepts all genres: advertising, animation, artists' film, comedy, dance, documentary, drama, experimental, fashion, music video, and thriller. Films should have running times up to 30 minutes. For Submission Guidelines and to enter, visit www.asff.co.uk/submit

Deadline May 31, 2017. Back to top.
