1. Canada 150 through Artists' Eyes during the FAA's Summer Artists Residencies starting Jun 30

The summer artist residency, run by the Fredericton Arts Alliance, begins on Friday, June 30 and will run through to Labour Day. This year starts with a twist: they will be in Officers' Square, housed in a brightly decorated, solar-powered shipping container. This initiative is known as Art in the Box, and will be more visible and more accessible than in previous years.

As in the past, they will pair up artists in a wide range of media – all selected by an independent jury to ensure excellence. Leading off on Friday are painter Derek Davidson and writer Mark Jarman.

Davidson works in acrylics, watercolour, and pen and ink, focusing on portraits, sports, and people involved in activities. The Officers' Square location will give him greater scope for observing, and visitors may well find themselves incorporated into artwork without their realizing it.

Jarman will be reflecting in his writing on travel to various locations, comparing other places to Canada, and especially New Brunswick.

All artists in the summer residencies have been asked to think about what Canada 150 means to them and to incorporate their thoughts into their writing, painting, music, weaving, photography, sculpture, or whatever other media they are using. Artists will have their work on display in the Art in the Box during their residencies.

Davidson and Jarman will be in residence through Sunday, July 2. The following week (July 3 to 9) Davidson continues, pairing with musician Katherine Moller. Moller plans to write fiddle music reflecting the range of styles brought to New Brunswick over the years from France, the British Isles and elsewhere. Jarman will have a full week's residency later in the summer.

Art in the Box will be open daily from 10am to 5pm, and artists may stay open on evenings when there are special events in Officers' Square. On July 10, potter Chase Plourde and interactive performance artist Jennifer Lee Wiebe will take over the Box for the following week.

2. Bard in the Barracks presents the Comedy of Errors in Barracks Square & Richard III in Odell Park Jun 22-Jul 9

Bard in the Barracks is celebrating Canada 150 with a specially expanded season featuring productions of two of the Bard's best-loved plays, running in two different locations in downtown Fredericton from June 22 through July 9.

This year's performances will kick off with The Comedy of Errors in Barracks Square. The Comedy of Errors is Shakespeare's comedy about the chaos that ensues when two pairs of long-separated identical twins unknowingly find themselves in the same city, causing cases of mistaken identity to spiral out of control. For the production, Barracks Square will be transformed into the Swinging Seventies city of Ephesus, Italy, a fantastical seaside resort filled with bustling merchants, devout nuns, shady exorcists, dimwitted constables, and a blustering, egocentric Duke.

The Comedy of Errors will run alongside Richard III in Odell Park. Richard III is Shakespeare's story of the infamous, late-medieval English king who rose to the throne by brutally eliminating all who stood in his way. Featuring dark deeds, thrilling swordplay, and ghostly visitations in a Game of Thrones-like setting, Richard III will be staged in Bard in the Barracks' trademark promenade style, which sees the audience immersed in the action and following scenes between different locations in the park.

The Comedy of Errors in Barracks Square and Richard III in Odell Park will be performed from June 22 through July 9, with performances of The Comedy of Errors set for June 22-24 and June 27-29 at 7:30pm, and June 25 and July 2 at 2pm. Richard III will be performed June 25, June 30, and July 2-July 9 at 7:30pm nightly. There are no shows on June 26 and July 1.

Single tickets range from $10-$18 with discounts for June 22 and 25 preview performances and for groups. Two-show passes, offering the patron's second show at half price, are also available, for $15-$27. For full show and ticket details, as well as to purchase advance tickets, visit www.bardinthebarracks.com or www.facebook.com/BardInTheBarracks/. For further information, call 458-7406, or email nbacts@unb.ca.

3. Lansdowne House Concert with T. Thomason Jun 29

T. Thomason was among the very first artists at Lansdowne house concerts. You would have known him then as Molly and we all marvelled at the vocals, the song writing, and the musicianship. At 16 years of age, he kept us spell-bound. He returns to our series five years later as T. Thomason and his latest EP, sweet baby, is a declaration of independence for an artist and although you may have heard him before, you've never heard him like this. Having made a bright and infectious pop-rock statement on his 2014 album, Columbus Field, Thomason has graduated to a higher level of lyrical incisiveness and hard-hitting sonic experimentation on "sweet baby". In basic terms, it's about leaving teenage angst behind and fully embracing who you really are.

With over a decade of experience in the music industry at 22 years old, T. Thomason is a force to be reckoned with in the East Coast Canadian music scene. T. Thomason has garnered multiple ECMA and MNA nominations, placements on Degrassi, song writing awards and recognition as one of Canada's Top 25 Under 25 by CBC Music. T. has shared the stage with The Trews, Joel Plaskett, Kim Mitchell, Gord Downie and the Sadies, Collective Soul, Fefe Dobson, Dragonette, and Carly Rae Jepsen, to name a few.

In 2015 and 2016, T. took personal time off to hone his musical direction and develop a series of EPs. T. Thomason emerged in 2017 with the EP, sweet baby, released on May 12, 2017 on COAX Records, the first of a series of three. sweet baby is T. Thomason's most audibly interesting yet, a conglomerate of T. Thomason's song writing sensibilities and reverb-y, indie rock choruses, establishing T. Thomason as a Canadian tour-de-force. T. is a genuine artist and captivating performer, with the passion of a true activist. He is at the forefront of a generation in pursuit of a life lived with honesty, integrity and self-discovery.

T. Thomason will visit us at 41 River Front Way on Thursday, June 29. The cost is $20 at the door, and the concert will begin at 8pm. To reserve a ticket contact Paul McDonnell at pmm56@me.com or 457-0826. Back to top.

5. Friends of Beaubears Island presents Canada's Forgotten Father at The Playhouse Jun 30

June 30, 7pm

Friends of Beaubears Island presents Canada's Forgotten Father

Written by Shawn McCarthy and directed by Chris Matheson

Peter Mitchell, a lawyer, businessman, and politician from Newcastle, was numbered among those founders of our dominion, the Fathers of Confederation, and involved in the early governance of our country. Sadly, today his contributions are largely forgotten, overshadowed by those of others, and clouded by Mitchell's own stormy temperament and the resentful attitude he exhibited at the close of his life.

Please be advised that this performance contains mature themes. Back to top.

10. Fredericton Ladies Choir Names New Music Leadership Team

The Fredericton Ladies Choir announces the appointment of a new director and a new accompanist following the retirement of former director Peter Steeves and accompanist Julie Maston in the spring.

Sally Dibblee has accepted the position of choir director. Sally has enjoyed 20+ years performing in opera and concert houses throughout North America. She has also been a vocal instructor privately and at Mount Allison University and serves as adjudicator at music festivals across the country. After spending 2-4 months on the road every year, she now wants to spend more time in her studio in Fredericton where she lives with her husband and two sons.

The choir's new accompanist is Nadine Martin who moved to Fredericton two years ago after spending 10 years in Halifax where her experience included collaborative pianist at her alma mater Dalhousie University and a companionist for Gilbert and Sullivan Society. Nadine has been an accompanist since age 11 when she played for and directed the choir at her small church on Prince Edward Island. She has competed and accompanied regionally, provincially, nationally, and internationally winning numerous awards. She was a Young Artist for two seasons at Scotia Festival of Music.

The choir will return to rehearsal in September. The tentative date for the choir's annual Christmas concert is December 10; further details will be announced in the fall. Back to top.

You can register in advance with either instructor at spond@bellalliant.net or willis.noble@gmail.com. Back to top.

4. edVentures Fredericton July 8 & 9

Spaces are still available in the following exciting workshops, and many more courses will be offered throughout the summer!

Make Your Own Dress Form

Have you ever wished you had a twin? Someone who could stand still for you while you fit that dress or hem that skirt? In one day, instructor Sarah MacIntyre will make your wish come true! Using brown paper tape you will make your own dress form. Please come wearing appropriate under garments and have a tight fitting tee shirt with sleeves that you won't mind cutting a part and you'll come away with your own personalized dress form – perfect for helping you complete that next garment for yourself with ease. (No sewing experience necessary for this workshop)!

- Instructor: Sarah MacIntyre
- Dates: July 15
- Location: New Brunswick College of Craft and Design
- Website: <http://edventures.ca/events/make-your-own-dress-form>

Paint a Landscape Scarf

Participants will experience the fun of painting on silk with colourful dyes. Instructor Allison Green will guide you through the process of painting a natural or urban landscape of your choice. Each student will go home with a wearable scarf which reminds them of a special place that is meaningful to them. Silk painting is a wonderful beginner art project, with satisfying results the very first time you try.

- Instructor: Allison Green
- Dates: July 15 & 16
- Location: New Brunswick College of Craft and Design
- Website: <http://edventures.ca/events/paint-a-landscape-scarf>

Egg Tempera Painting

It's easier than you might think to paint with egg yolks! During this two-day workshop, William Forrestall will give a short talk and slide show on the development of egg tempera paint and how it has affected painting in Atlantic Canada. You will learn various applications and painting on heavy stock paper. Still life painting may be done outdoors, weather permitting. Participants will critique and discuss individual paintings.

- Instructor: Kent Jensen
- Dates: July 22 & 23
- Location: New Brunswick College of Craft and Design
- Website: <http://edventures.ca/events/egg-tempera-painting>

5. Fredericton Region Museum Summer Day Camps! Jul 10 - Aug 11

The Fredericton Region Museum operates six different weeks of summer day camps offering children 8 to 11 years of age an opportunity to directly explore some of Fredericton's history and discover links to the City's past. Our camps have a maximum of 10 campers each week, allowing the children to fully participate and enjoy the week in their own way while also exploring and learning about our past in a fun and inclusive manner. Children take daily trips to nearby sites and visit heritage gems that make Fredericton a wonderful place to live. With lots of time for creativity, campers play traditional and contemporary games, construct crafts, explore our heritage, make lasting friendships, and learn about our past in a very unique way!

Dates and Themes:

- July 3 – 7: A “March Pass” Through History
Focusing on how war affected Canada and the important role that men and women played in our military history, this week will be filled with games and activities that relate to The War of 1812, the Revolutionary War, and The First and Second World War. Canada's modern role in maintaining peace will also be explored. March through history with us as we learn through guest speakers, games, activities, and outings.
- July 10 – 14: The History of Fun: Playing Around with Heritage
What did people do for fun? What games did they play? What did they create? Learn about the history of arts, crafts, and recreation through fun, hands-on activities. Activities will include visits to historical and cultural sites (such as art galleries and museums), special guests, and historically significant games and crafts. Join us and learn about toys and games from the past while you play with them!

- July 17 – 21: Technology and Communication in Our Past
Calling all communicators! This week focuses on the history and evolution of communications and technologies that past generations used and enjoyed! Campers will participate with and learn about different types of technology and communication technologies from our past through crafts, field trips, and games while also having lots of fun!
- July 24 – 28: Behind the Scenes of Fredericton Heritage
Campers will explore behind the scenes areas of several of Fredericton's Heritage centers and find links to the city's past. Children will take daily trips to nearby locations and visit heritage gems that make Fredericton a wonderful place to live. With lots of time for creativity, campers will play traditional and contemporary games, construct crafts, explore the secrets of heritage buildings, and make new friends.
- July 31 – August 4: Historical Foundations: Fredericton's Architecture from the Ground Up!
This week is all about the history of architecture. Learn about Fredericton's historic buildings with crafts, games, and field trips! Architecture can tell us a lot about what life was like in a different time, as well as what a building was used for. Join us as we unlock the mysteries of our local historic buildings!
- August 8 – 11 (4 Day Camp): Fredericton's Past to Present
Let's discover history, starting with Fredericton! Fredericton has many historic buildings that help tell the story of the city, which used to be very different than it is now! Once called Saint Anne's Point, Fredericton has lots of reminders of its past. Join us as and see what life was like for Loyalists, First Nation Peoples, Acadians, and for the people of historic Marysville! Activities will include historic games and crafts, as well as trips to historic sites.

Rates:

- 5 Day Camps: Members $130 / Non-Members $140
- 4 Day Camp: Members $105 / Non-Members $115
- Camp fee includes a museum t-shirt, all materials, and activities
- Meals and snacks are not included
- All camps run from 8:30am to 5pm

Spaces are open! To register, please visit our website at: <https://frederictonregionmuseum.wordpress.com/programs/summer-day-camps/>. For more information, please call us at: (506) 455-6041, or email us at: frederictonregionmuseum@gmail.com. Back to top.

6. UNB Summer Music Camps

Come make music with us this summer at the Centre for Musical Arts! The annual UNB Music Camps are dedicated to furthering the experience and growth of New Brunswick music students. Originally designed for string, wind, and choral students, it has since expanded to include songwriter camps, half and full-day camps for the very young, and programs for youth strings.

Every one of our summer camp activities-the music, stories, and crafts-is specially designed to nurture your child's natural curiosity, drawing him or her toward learning new concepts and new ideas. Through these fun filled activities children gain a greater knowledge of music, inspiring creativity and imagination.

- Music Camp for Youngsters (Ages 3-5)

UNB's Music Camp for Youngsters offers a fun-filled introduction to music concepts specially tailored to younger children. The half-day camp is designed to introduce children ages 3-5 to music by listening to stories, singing, and playing rhythm instruments. Have fun, make new friends and learn along the way!

Dates: July 24-28, 2017

Time: 9am - 12pm (Drop-off at 8:30am and pick-up by 12:30pm)

Location: Memorial Hall, UNB Campus

Price: $169

Deadline to register: July 1, 2017

<http://www.unb.ca/cel/programs/creative/music-camp/summer-music-camp/music-camp-for-youngsters.html>

- Youth Strings Camp (Ages 6-10)

A half day camp for students ages 6-10 who have begun to learn the violin or cello. The camp is inspired by the Suzuki method of learning string instruments, with lots of fun group learning, listening, and supportive performance experiences. Students are recommended to have 1 year's experience playing their instrument (or can comfortably play French Folk Song or an equivalent piece). Expert instruction will be combined with fun activities - stay involved in music over the summer while making new friends and having fun!

Dates: July 10-14, 2017

Time: 9am - 12pm (Drop-off from 8:30am and pick-up by 12:30pm)

Location: Memorial Hall, UNB Campus

- Songwriters Camp (Ages 11-15)

Have you always wanted to write your own tunes? Do you already write your own songs, and want to learn from experienced singer-songwriters? UNB's Songwriter Camp will give students the opportunity to work and get guidance from experienced musicians in the industry. Get instruction on lyric writing, collaborating, chords and harmony, and finish the week off with by recording the song you wrote! Recommended for students with experience singing, playing guitar, piano, or ukulele. UNB Music Camp offers young musicians the option to stay on campus for the duration of camp!

Dates: July 17-21, 2017

Time: 9am - 4pm (Drop-off from 8am and pick-up by 5pm)

Location: Marshall d'Avray Hall, UNB Campus

Price: $199 (+HST for campers ages 15+)

Deadline to register: July 1, 2017

<http://www.unb.ca/cel/programs/creative/music-camp/summer-music-camp/songwriters.html>

- Band Camp (Ages 11-17)

Since its inception in 1993, the UNB String and Band camps have been providing young musicians an enjoyable and stimulating musical experience at UNB's Fredericton campus. Each summer, students travel from across the province to learn from some of New Brunswick's top performing classical musicians.

Each day, music campers participate in a fun blend of chamber groups, ensembles, master classes, performance opportunities and recreational electives. The camp is open to musicians with an array of experience under their belts, creating an environment that inspires younger students and challenges more advanced players.

UNB's Band Camp is a wonderful summer enrichment program for students with some basic experience on a band instrument (brass, woodwind or percussion!). Keep up your band chops through the summer by participating in group lessons, full band rehearsals, and private lessons! Students will be mentored by professional instructors and performers in a supportive and fun learning environment. UNB Music Camp offers young musicians the option to stay on campus for the duration of camp!

Dates: July 17-21, 2017

Time: 9am - 4pm (Drop-off from 8am and pick-up by 5pm)

7. NB Girls Rock Camp!

Charlotte Street Arts Centre is pleased to announce we will be curating our very first rock camp for girls ages 11-18 this summer from August 21-25. We are teaming up with amazing (wo)mentors from the local music community to offer five days of workshops, band practice and art based learning that will be capped off with a concert featuring our campers.

If you know someone who might be interested in participating email Eva at artreach@charlottestreetarts.ca. Back to top.

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Call for Submissions: The Creative Connections Conference

The Creative Connections Conference is taking place November 16 to 18, 2017 and you are invited to submit proposals for presentations and workshops.

The deadline for submissions has been extended to June 30, 2017.

The conference is being organized by the Atlantic Centre for Creativity, which is based at University of New Brunswick but has several partners across the province and regionally. The central goal of the Centre and this conference is to increase awareness, and enhance creative practices across disciplines including: sciences, the arts, business, entrepreneurship and education. It will be an interactive, collaborative and interdisciplinary conference designed to encourage participants to 'think outside the box', take risks, share new ideas and enhance teaching practices.

Students, staff, faculty, administrators, government officials, and the public are encouraged to participate and/or attend this conference.

For further information about the Atlantic Centre for Creativity and the Creative Connections Conference please go to the website atlanticcentreforcreativity.com or contact Mary Blatherwick: mlb@unb.ca or Rosemary Kohr: rkohr@unb.ca.

For more information, visit <http://unb.ca/conferences/creativeconnections/>. Back to top.

2. Charlotte Glencross Scholarship

This scholarship, which honours the late artist, arts educator, and activist Charlotte Glencross, aims to support developing practitioners in the arts. The scholarship is open to all age categories and disciplines, where an artist or crafts person seeks to build upon a new practice or establish a new direction in their work.

The deadline is Friday, June 30, 2017.

To apply visit: http://charlottestreetarts.ca/publications/Charlotte_Glencross_Scholarship_Application_2017.pdf. Back to top.

3. River Jam Seeking Nominations for Diane London Award

Each year during River Jam, there is a special award presented in honour of Diane London, beloved diva of the Downtown Blues Band, whose final performance was at River Jam 2004 before losing her battle to cancer. The award honours a local musician, artist, or arts-related woman with a creative spirit and talent who gives of themselves to the community and who exemplify the spirit and character of Diane.

Do you know a woman from Fredericton or the Saint John River region who exemplifies the spirit and character of Diane London? Someone who is a musician, artist or arts-related individual who has a creative spirit and talent, and who gives back to the community? Nominate Her for the Diane London Award!

For more info contact johnnyleroux@hotmail.com and to complete a nomination form, visit <http://www.123contactform.com/form-2002047/Diane-London-Nomination-Form>. The award recipient will be announced prior to River Jam and a presentation of the award plaque and a $600 prize will be awarded at River Jam, the annual summer celebration of music along the Saint John River which will take place on Friday, July 7, 2017 at the Delta Fredericton. 4. artsnb Career Development Program

The program is designed to recognize and encourage arts professionals who have demonstrated exceptional artistic talent and potential, and who are pursuing a career in the arts. The program is divided in four components:

Arts by Invitation is for assistance to present work by invitation in established arts events

Artist in Residence is for assistance for participation in residency opportunities of three (3) months and less. The artists in residence are to contribute to the promotion and understanding of the arts by means of the artists' contact with the clientele of the establishments.

Professional Development is for assistance for professional development scholarships for studies and mentorships.

Professionalization and Promotion is designed to assist artists to produce tools related to the promotion of the artist's work and career with a view to broadening the dissemination network for their work and diversifying their sources for funding

The deadline for applications is July 1, 2017.

For more information or to apply visit: <http://artsnb.ca/site/en/programs/career-development/>. Back to top.

5. Council of the Arts Fredericton Performing Arts Scholarship

Students planning to pursue studies in a recognized program in the performing arts are invited to apply for the Council of the Arts Fredericton Performing Arts Scholarship. The annual award is valued at $5,000. It is intended for residents of the greater Fredericton area. The course of study can take place at any institution recognized by the Canada Revenue Agency and must involve performance or production. Students at secondary, post-secondary and graduate levels are eligible.

Information and application guidelines are available through the Fredericton Community Foundation at www.fredfdn.ca. Applications must be received on or before July 31, 2017. The recipient will be determined by a three-member selection committee.

From 1978 until 2006, Council of the Arts Fredericton presented quality performances to Fredericton audiences through its ONSTAGE and KIDSTAGE programs and encouraged young people in their study of the performing arts through awards and scholarships. The Performing Arts Scholarship was created in 2007 with funds from the Council that are managed through a designated fund agreement with the Fredericton Community Foundation. Back to top.

7. Come Sing at Choral Fest 2017

Registration is now open for the New Brunswick Choral Federation's Choral Fest. Choral Fest has been held annually for 35 years, bringing singers from all over New Brunswick and the region to learn and perform a major work under a noted conductor. This year's clinician and conductor is Dr. Matthew Leese of Keene College, New Hampshire.

Registration deadline: Friday, September 29, 2017

Traditionally, Choral Fest circulates between Fredericton, Saint John and Moncton. This year, however, NBCF is very pleased to have partnered with the St. Andrews Arts Council to bring Choral Fest to St. Andrews, NB for the first time. Choral Fest will be in St. Andrews, New Brunswick from October 20-22, 2017.

More details are available by emailing nbchoralfed@gmail.com or at nbcfsite.wordpress.com/choral-fest. Back to top.

8. Call to Artists for the 5th Annual Recovery Art Show

Addictions and Mental Health Services Fredericton, Horizon Health Network, is pleased to issue a Call to Artists for the 5th Annual Recovery Art Show, an exhibition highlighting recovery from addiction and mental illness.

Creativity and artistic expression can play an important role in recovery. The purpose of this exhibit is to show art depicting people's experience of recovery, increase public awareness, spark discussion, teach and change perceptions. The exhibition will be shown at The Fredericton Public Library during November 2017.

The deadline for submissions is October 13, 2017. For more information or to request a submission form, please contact Jenn Wilkins at Jennifer.Wilkins2@gnb.ca or call 474-4535. Back to top.
