1. FAA's Summer Artists Residencies continue with Kim Bent and Yolande Clark Aug 14-20

Weaver Kim Bent returned as FAA Artist in Residence on August 14, this time joined by clay artist Yolande Clark.

Bent has a spinning wheel outside the container studio in Officers' Square turning bright raw wool into fine yarns to use on her table loom inside. Clark has a potter's wheel to throw ceramics – and to give visitors a chance to get their own hands dirty. Clark's interest in ceramics goes back to a first pottery class at age 3. She is now an established ceramist with work in galleries in New Brunswick, Ontario, and Japan. She plans to work with the potter's wheel as well as making coil pots. She will have two wheels available so visitors can try their hand at making a clay vessel or sculpture using traditional or contemporary methods. Her residency will also reflect the history of pottery in Canada from First Nations ceramics onward. They will share the studio until August 20.

Rachel Forrestall and Phoebe Marmura will move into the studio from August 21 to 27 to co-produce a zine publication, blog site, and short film on Maritime social culture. Marmura is a photography student at the New Brunswick College of Craft and Design with an interest in film. Forrestall has completed a degree in Canadian studies and art history from Mount Allison University. Together they will look at social story telling in contemporary maritime communities, looking particularly at stories of celebrity sightings and how news spreads in small close-knit communities.

Art in the Box will be open daily from 10am to 5pm, and artists may stay open on evenings when there are special events in Officers' Square. Back to top.

2. FAA'S Annual For Arts' Sake Gala Oct 12

The Fredericton Arts Alliance's annual Gala, For Arts' Sake, starts at 7pm on Thursday, October 12, at the Charlotte Street Arts Centre with piano music by Dianne Roxborough Brown. It continues with songs by Cat LeBlanc, followed by music from the Don Bossé Jazz Quartet with singer Mary Millikin.

Throughout there are elegant nibbles, wine and beer, and a silent auction of art, fine craft, theatre and concert tickets, antique books and other items. Auctioneer John LeRoux will end the evening with a live auction offering exceptional art work created by our Fredericton artists.

Tickets are $40, and include a free drink, the aforementioned nibbles, and entertainment. The funds raised support a wide range of arts programs in the city. Mark your calendar! Back to top.

3. Calithumpians Announce Last Two Weeks of 2017 Season

Theatre-in-the-Park in Officers' Square runs until Labour Day, featuring Fredericton's troupe of professional actors, The Calithumpians. Four shows are offered in repertory seven days a week featuring a multi-talented crew of performers. Show times are 12:15pm weekdays and 2pm weekends and holidays.

This year's line-up is a special tribute to Canada 150 and are based on Canadian history and current Canadian issues. This year's troupe is especially strong and charismatic. The Calithumpians features eleven multi-talented actor-performers in a musical and comedic troupe. There are two plays that feature the full cast.

Canada Can celebrates New Brunswick's leadership role in Confederation and focuses on how we can get better at being Canadian. This show finishes its run on the following days: August 22, 24, 30, and Labour Day, September 4.

Y.E.S. We CANada! brings back the Young Enviro Stewards (YES) in action this year as they take us on a fun-filled journey on the Solar Express to the North Pole and back again. The show will conclude on August 23, 29 and 31.

On Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays, two small-cast shows are featured with five troupe members each. Games On! is written in commemoration of 50 years of the Jeux Canada Games and the key role of Frederictonian, Roly Mclenahan, in founding the games in the 1960s. This show of fun and games runs August 20, 21, 27, 28, and September 3.

Finally, Fire Work pays tribute to our local fire-fighters and rings in 200 years of the Fredericton Fire Department. This performance plays August 8, 19, 25, 26, September 1 and 2.

Fredericton Outdoor Summer Theatre and the Calithumpians are grateful for all the support from all three levels of government: the City of Fredericton, the Province of New Brunswick, and the Government of Canada. We are also grateful to Downtown Fredericton Inc. and a wide variety of local businesses for their support. Most of all we are grateful to our loyal audiences who have been coming to the Historic Garrison District for over three decades for our particular local brand of fun with public performance. Come to the park and join the Calithumpians in their 37th season in the downtown. Bring your picnic lunch and enjoy the show! Come early and come often. For further information see www.Calithumpians.com. Back to top.

4. Haunted Hikes 2017 Continue

The Calithumpians take great pleasure in announcing another season of Haunted Hikes! New stories and dramatic effects have been added to ghost walks for 2017. The Haunted Hike is an after dark tour through the haunted neighbourhood of old Fredericton. The company have been doing these tours for 20 years and they have proven to be very popular for our family audiences.

Meet the ghosts and ghouls from Fredericton's past on a lantern-lit tour featuring spine-tingling frights and funny bone-tickling gags. This is fun for the whole family as you meet several phantom thespians along the trail. The hikes run Mondays to Saturdays at 9pm. Patrons should show up at 8:45pm. The 2017 version of the hike continues until Saturday, September 2. Patrons are asked to meet at The Coach House, 796a Queen St., Corner of Queen and Church Streets in the yard beside Gallery 78.

Tickets are available at the door. Prices are $14 per head and $9 for children under 12 years. Discounts are available on request for groups and families. Reservations are not required. For more information from the troupe email calithumpians@gmail.com, or call 457-1975 between 8:30am and 4:30pm on weekdays. Back to top.

5. House Concert with Union Duke Aug 15

Union Duke is a Toronto folk quintet that's taking the world by storm - one captivating performance at a time. Last summer the Dukes entertained, amazed, enchanted and excited our audience. We had to have them back and we are thrilled that they are coming!

What do they sound like? Bridging soulful indie rock with bluegrass and country, these city-slickin' whipper-snappers unleash soaring vocal harmonies over heel-stomping beats, in a growing collection of irresistible songs that set hearts and dance floors ablaze. But what sets them apart is their amazing, energetic live performances. You've heard Mumford & Sons, now come and hear Canada's answer! We don't often have to squeeze in 5 artists at once! But believe us, it'll be a pleasin' squeeze! Beat the heat with these cool dudes!

This concert takes place Tuesday, August 15 at 8pm at 41 River Front Way. There is an artist's fee of $25 per person. Reservations may be made to pmm@unb.ca or at 470-9706. Back to top.

16. TNB Seeking Short-Term Accommodations for Theatre Artists

Do you have a room, suite or furnished apartment you're looking to rent on a short-term basis? Theatre New Brunswick frequently welcomes theatre artists – actors, stage managers, designers – from outside Fredericton. We are looking to build our database of accommodation opportunities. Each of these bookings is for approximately 4-6 weeks (longer in the case of TNB Young Company artists).

Important amenities that artists look for are a private room, laundry access, internet access, and walking distance and/or public transport available to get them to and from rehearsals. Accommodation opportunities that allow for pets or parking are occasionally required. We typically look for rent ranges between $120-$140 per week where kitchen and/or bathroom is shared and $150-$180 per week for private accommodations with separate kitchenette and/or ensuite.

If you'd like to host one of our artists please contact info@tnb.nb.ca. Back to top.
