1. Elm City Echoes Accepting New Members

Elm City Echoes, Fredericton's barbershop chorus for women, have returned to practice and are ready to welcome new members aged 15 and over. The chorus meets every Monday evening at 7pm at Cathedral Memorial Hall, located at 168 Church Street. Previous experience and the ability to read music are not required. If you love to sing, call Carole at 452-1016 for more information. We are ordinary women making extraordinary music! Back to top.

2. New Works at the Gallery on Queen to celebrate Harvest Jazz & Blues Sept 12

The Harvest Jazz and Blues Festival is the best international festival experience on Canada's East Coast, and to celebrate with the festivities, the Gallery on Queen's walls will be transformed into a visual delight! We will have new art works from many of our fabulous artists taking centre stage. We will be introducing the new works, new artists, and a new medium. During this exciting week only, the Gallery will be open Monday September 12. Regular gallery hours are Tuesday to Saturday from 10am-5:30pm. Back to top.

3. Photo Fredericton Starts Up For Another Season

Photo Fredericton is a group of photographers from Fredericton and surrounding communities. The focus of Photo Fredericton's activities is to provide its membership with an opportunity to engage with fellow photographic enthusiasts to share their knowledge and ideas about photography. Photo Fredericton is a member club of the Canadian Association for Photographic Art.

- To provide for its members a forum for discussion at regular meetings
- To provide opportunities for its members to increase their proficiency in photographic techniques and the creative use of photography at workshops and field trips
- To increase community awareness of photography as an art form through public exhibits and presentations

The general public is encouraged to attend any of our meetings listed below, meet and greet is 7pm; all meetings start at 7:30pm. Cameras of all types, sizes, and skill level are welcome. Meetings for the 2016-17 season will be in Room 202, Brian Mulroney Hall, Saint Thomas University. Parking is available at the corner of Montgomery and Windsor Streets.

4. Harvest Jazz and Blues Festival Sept 13-18

It's the best international festival experience on Canada's East Coast, with the best in jazz, blues, and world music taking centre stage. During six incredible days in historic downtown Fredericton, the annual festival features over 400 artists and 150 performances on 27 stages, all within six city blocks. Acclaimed international performers and top regional acts share the stage for a music experience like no other.

Tickets and a full schedule of events are available through Harvest Jazz and Blues at www.harvestjazzandblues.com. Back to top.

5. Jazz at Parkland Fredericton Sept 15

Parkland Fredericton joins the Harvest Jazz and Blues Festival for 2016 with a special performance by a Jazz trio extraordinaire on Thursday, September 15 at 2pm. Veteran Fredericton blues pianist Stan Howe teams up with classically trained pianist Eddie Oldfield and awesome, high energy chanteuse Sherri Chenard (both of 8trackmind), to shake up the joint in the Garrison Lounge, Regent Hall at Parkland Fredericton, located at 45 Patience Lane.

The concert features a blend of jazz standards, improvisation, and modern classics. This free event promises to be the hit of the festival and all are welcome. For further information please call Penny at 460-8546 or email ppacey@shannex.com. Back to top.

6. Debra Komar: What Makes a Murderer? at Fredericton Public Library Sept 15

On Thursday, September 15 at 7pm at the Fredericton Public Library, located at 12 Carleton Street, Goose Lane Editions will present Debra Komar's What Makes a Murderer?

What makes a murderer? What role, if any, should the accused's character play in a court of law? Join Debra Komar, forensic anthropologist and award-winning author of Black River Road, for a look at how an historical case of murder in the Maritimes shows why treating character as evidence remains one of Canada's most controversial legal issues. This event is free and open to the public. Books will be available for purchase. Back to top.

7. Cinema Politica presents Last Chance Sept 16

Cinema Politica presents Last Chance on Friday, September 16 at 7pm at Conserver House, located at 180 Saint John Street. All are welcome; films are free, but donations are encouraged to cover screening costs and to fund local organizing efforts committed to social change. The venue is accessible but the washrooms are located up the stairs.

8. Lady of the Lake Concert With Maureen Batt, Jon-Paul Decosse & Simon Docking Sept 18

Lady of the Lake, a Sunday evening concert featuring a new Canadian Song Cycle by Nova Scotia composer, Fiona Ryan, and Schubert's Op. 52 will be presented on Sunday, September 18 at 7pm at Saint Andrew's Presbyterian Church, located at 512 Charlotte Street.

Both works are inspired by Sir Walter Scott's Lady of the Lake, an epic poem about love, war, political conflict, loss, destiny and reconciliation in the Scottish Highlands centuries ago. Weaving together Scottish and Maritime folksong idioms and contemporary musical ideas, Fiona Ryan seeks to portray these characters and their stories in a series of dramatic songs that give voice to those who are not always heard in wartime narratives. The song cycle was composed to be presented alongside Schubert's Op. 52, which includes the beloved "Ave Maria," to show how the same story can be told through music in two different ways. The artists all have extensive experience in performing and this concert is in preparation for an up-coming commercial CD recording of the evening program.

Admission to the concert will be $20 at the door for adults, and $15 for seniors and students, with reception to follow in the Church Hall. Please come along for an outstanding evening of musical entertainment. Back to top.

9. Lisa Nicole & George Bryan at Grimross Sept 19

Lisa Nicole & George Bryan will perform at Grimross Brewing Co. on September 19 starting at 7:30pm. The cost is a suggested donation of $10.

Lisa Nicole is a Country artist hailing from the mountains of the interior of British Columbia that border the Washington State. As up-and-coming west coast darling of the British Columbia Country Music Association, her most impressive career accomplishment to date would be landing the winner's spot in the BCCMA/Music BC-sponsored Artist Development Project in September 2015. As the winner, Lisa secured a writing trip to Nashville in November 2015, writing with writers such as Daryl Burgess and Rylee Madison and playing shows at venues such as The Bluebird Café and The Commodore. In addition, she is the recipient of the Bell Media Prize to Canada's Music Incubator 10-week 'Artist Entrepreneur Program' for 2016 in Toronto. This opportunity serves to nicely round out her musical education as a graduate of Selkirk College of Contemporary Music and Technology in Nelson, BC.

English/French with English subtitles

Cast: Colin Farrell, Rachel Weisz, John C. Reilly

Colin Farrell, Rachel Weisz and John C. Reilly star in the deliciously bizarre new film from Greek auteur Yorgos Lanthimos (Dogtooth, ALPS), about a curious hotel where the residents are charged with finding a new mate within 45 days "under penalty of being transformed into animals should they fail."

September 26, 2016 - 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

The Man Who Knew Infinity

Matthew Brown

114 mins

UK

English

Cast: Jeremy Irons, Dev Patel

Featuring terrific performances by Dev Patel (The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel, Slumdog Millionaire) and Academy Award winner Jeremy Irons (Margin Call, Inland Empire), The Man Who Knew Infinity tells the story of Srinivasa Ramanujan, the Indian mathematician whose contributions to number theory, continued fractions, and infinite series revolutionized the field. This sweeping historical Gala Presentation at the 2015 Toronto International Film Festival, about high science and the tragic repercussions of racism amongst the ostensibly enlightened is a testament to the wonder and precariousness of genius — and the power of friendship to change the world.

Opening near the dawn of the 20th Century, the film follows Ramanujan (Patel) from his humble roots in Madras — where opportunities for someone of Ramanujan's abilities are few — to Cambridge University, where the young prodigy's visionary theories attract the attention of English mathematician G.H. Hardy (Irons). The chance to work in the same hallowed halls where Isaac Newton formulated the laws of motion and universal gravitation is a dream come true for Ramanujan, but also proves to be a sort of nightmare. His colleagues, unable to see beyond his dark skin and unfamiliar culture, harass and humiliate him, while Hardy insists that Ramanujan deliver countless proofs before being allowed to publish his work.

One of the most remarkable feats of The Man Who Knew Infinity is the way it renders Ramanujan's ground-breaking, complex theories understandable even to a layperson. But even more important is the film's depiction of Ramanujan and Hardy's difficult yet deep friendship, as they gradually evolve from stern mentor and untameable protégé to true peers, whose mutual love and respect transcend the formidable obstacles of race, class, culture, and tradition.

This year, 30 limited release, independent foreign & Canadian films will be shown. Admission is $7/film, but a yearly film society membership reduces admission cost to $4/film. The series is open to all. Memberships are available at Tilley 102 every Monday night. For further info, contact NB Film Co-op at 455-1632 or info@nbfilmcoop.com, or visit <http://www.nbfilmcoop.com/exhibition/monday-night-film-series>. 11. 5 Days for the Forest Festival Sept 19-24

The Conservation Council of New Brunswick is excited to announce the Conservation Council's first ever 5 Days for the Forest! The festival will occur during National Forest Week, September 19-24, and will celebrate our beautiful forest during its fall glory. We can't protect that which we don't know and love and we think the Acadian forest needs more love.

Join us for a walk in the forest, a tasting, TREEvia, jazz, Latin music, dancing, and films! Sponsored by: Gosling Foundation, OMISTA Credit Union, The Playhouse, Crowne Plaza, The Capital Complex, The Grad House, Real Food Connections, the NB Federation of Woodlot Owners, and Community Forests International. Events include:

- September 20: OMISTA's Local Chews & Brews

New Brunswick's forests are full of food and medicines like fiddleheads, fish, berries, mushrooms, and maple and birch syrups. Join us for OMISTA's Local Chews & Brews on Tuesday, September 20 at 6pm at the Crowne Plaza Lord Beaverbrook, located at 659 Queen Street. The Crowne Plaza's chefs will serve up platters of hors d'oeuvres made with local ingredients. A cash bar will serve up your favourite local brews and ciders. Marilyn Lerch, a local writer and poet, will feed us with her words. Facebook event page: <https://www.facebook.com/events/326846834327372/>.

- September 21: Conserving Our Forests at Home & Abroad: Screening of Kokota: Islet of Hope with Community Forests International

Join us for a short documentary on how Tanzanian communities vulnerable to climate change are organizing to find solutions for their communities at 6pm on Wednesday, September 21 at the Forestry & Geology Building, Room 203, at University of New Brunswick. Join a discussion after the film with Community Forest International's Zach Melanson on what is being done to combat climate change at the grassroots level.

- September 22: Forest Gala with Gypsophilia at The Playhouse

Four-time ECMA award-winning jazz band Gypsophilia will perform at The Playhouse in a fundraiser for the Conservation Council on Thursday, September 22 at 7:30pm. Tickets are $40+HST. Buy your tickets online or at The Playhouse. This 7-piece instrumental band mixes hot jazz with klezmer, funk, and world rhythms. Facebook event page: <https://www.facebook.com/events/1215414245177927/>.

- September 22: Tumba Sound at 5 Days for the Forest

Join us for a night of dancing with one of our hometown favourite bands, Tumba Sound, at The Capital Complex on Thursday, September 22 at 9:30pm. Tickets will be on sale at the door for $8. Visit the Facebook event page at <https://www.facebook.com/events/1317811954897139/>.

- September 22: Rockabilly For The Forest

Rockabilly for the Forest with The Hypochondriacs at The Capital on September 22. Enjoy The Hypochondriacs at The Capital at 9:30pm. Tickets are $10 on sale at the door.

- September 23: A Beautiful Forest Screening with Cinema Politica

The Conservation Council and Cinema Politica Fredericton are screening APTN's A Beautiful Forest on Friday, September 23 at 6pm at Conserver House, located at 180 Saint John Street. The Acadian forest once spanned across the entirety of modern day New Brunswick and beyond and has been home to a variety of indigenous peoples, animals, and tree species. This documentary listens to several experts in their fields, all relating to the land and peoples as they discuss the meaning to the forest to indigenous people, themselves, and the land itself. See what experts say has happened to the former glory of the forest, its use throughout industrialization, modern times, and where things can go into the future. The film will be followed by a discussion with Bill Parenteau (UNB History), Lloyd Salmone (film producer), and others.

For more information, visit: <http://www.conservationcouncil.ca/5daysfortheforest/> or the Facebook event page: <https://www.facebook.com/events/1646878525627867/>, or contact: forest@conservationcouncil.ca. Back to top.

12. Registration Continues for the Fredericton Choral Society Sept 20

The Fredericton Choral Society is a non-auditioning community choir, directed by Heather Dunham. The choir performs works from the larger choral repertoire. The ability to read music is a definite asset, but not mandatory, and singers should be able to carry a tune. We shall be performing Handel's Messiah at Wilmot United Church in Fredericton on Friday, December 9, 2016, and at the Woodstock Baptist Church in Woodstock on Saturday, December 10, 2016.

Our practices are held every Tuesday evening, at St. Paul's United Church, on the corner of York and George Streets at 7:15pm - 9:15pm. Registration continues if you missed the first rehearsal, on the following Tuesdays: September 20 and September 27 at 6:45pm.

Fees are $40 per term for individuals, $65 per term for families, and only $10 for students per term. Scores are available for borrowing or for purchase. We look forward to welcoming you. Back to top.

13. Riel Nason at the Fredericton Public Library Sept 21

On September 21 at 7pm the Fredericton Public Library will host a celebration of Riel Nason's new book, All the Things We Leave Behind, in the River Reading Room on the 2nd floor. All the Things We Leave Behind is about remembrance and attachment, about what we collect and what we cast off. In this highly affecting novel, Nason explores the permeability of memory and the sometimes confusing bonds of human emotion. Filled with strong characters and objects of forgotten desire — perfume bottles, tintypes, rabbit-eared chairs — Riel Nason's All the Things We Leave Behind subtly unravels the mind's delusions and the past's seduction. 14. Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne's launches the 2016-17 Season with Cy & Christian KIT Goguen Sept 22

The Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne (CCSA) will launch its 2016-2017 season on Thursday, September 22 at 7:30pm at the Bernard-Poirier theatre. Don't miss the Nova Scotia band, Cy, and the Acadian singer-songwriter, Christian KIT Goguen. Tickets are sold at the front desk of the CCSA, located at 715 Priestman St. and at ccsa.yapsody.com for $20 regular and $10 for those 19 years old and under.

The opening of Georges Goguen's art exhibition, Formes recyclées, will precede this show at 6:30pm at the Galerie des Bâisseurs. The admission to this event is free. For more information call 453-2731 or email info@centre-sainte-anne.nb.ca. Back to top.

15. Kenny James and Carla Bonnell at Grimross Brewing Co. Sept 23

Enjoy some alt-country and Canadiana in the Grimross Brewing Co. taproom on September 23. Carla Bonnell starts things off at 7:45pm, followed by Kenny James at 8:30pm. There is a $10 suggested donation for entry.

There is something about living in Sackville, New Brunswick that spawns a spirit for original music. Kenny James has emerged from the indie/garage rock scene and evolved into an adult-contemporary Americana/Country singer-songwriter with a passion for that California Country sound. The East Coast of Canada is far colder than the sun-drenched California desert, but somehow KJ warms things up with a sound that might feel right at home in Bakersfield, CA. There's an easy gallop to much of the music, stories spilling out from these twangy, good-natured tunes. His influences are from the likes of Ryan Adams, J.Cash, Gram Parsons and the Bakersfield sound of Merle, Buck and Dwight.

16. Spotlight Series presents Joe Ink at The Playhouse Sept 24

September 24, 7:30pm

Spotlight Series presents Joe Ink's 4OUR

Led by Artistic Director Joe Laughlin, Joe Ink has built a reputation for its versatility, creating provocative, witty and lyrical work. Described as "wickedly sophisticated," "unusual" and "daring," Laughlin's style is uniquely informed by his background in gymnastics and performance, and choreographic experience in dance, theatre and new media. Exploring the dynamics of family, the transference of memory, and the singular moments that shape our lives, 4OUR is an emotionally resonant and visually striking performance that reflects the unique chemistry and cross-generational relationships between the dancers. Back to top.

17. The Motorleague & Brother at The Capital Sept 24

On Saturday, September 24, The Capital presents a concert featuring The Motorleague and Brother for $10 at the door. Doors open at 8pm, and the show starts at 9pm.

With their new album, Holding Patterns, The Motorleague (guitarist Nathan Jones, bassist Shawn Chiasson, drummer Francis Landry, and vocalist/guitarist Don Levandier) have cemented their union and, subsequently, their status as a straight-up rock band, raw and raucous. What they're good at is blasting out big riffs and big hooks while being mindful of melody and dynamics. Rooted in the same overdriven single-string riffage and thundering rhythms that fans have come to expect, Holding Patterns sheds the superfluous elements and focuses in on the band's unbridled ferocity and fervour. It's also the most cohesive and focused of their output to date. Back to top.

18. TNB Open Space Theatre Tours Available Sept 25

This season TNB is proud to produce three world premiere productions by New Brunswick playwrights in their very own theatre space: The Open Space Theatre.

This intimate performance space was first introduced last year and played host to three productions in our season. Since then we have installed new (and very comfortable) theatre seating, have expanded our lobby, and are currently in the process of renovating our washroom facilities, adding new dressing rooms and a brand new rehearsal studio that will be the new home of the TNB Theatre School.

Needless to say, they're incredibly excited to start the season and sincerely hope that you'll come to celebrate this beautiful new addition to the city's performing arts landscape! This season's line-up:

- October 13-23: A Sunday Affair
- November 17-27: Ghost Light
- March 9-18: The Boat

TNB will be taking part in this year's Doors Open Fredericton event joining several other locations throughout the city and opening our doors for a look 'behind the curtain'. Be sure to stop by between 1 and 4pm on September 25, and take a tour of our theatre and our production, props, and wardrobe departments. If you're curious as to how a play comes to life, this is your opportunity to see first-hand how theatre is made. For more information visit: <http://www.tnb.nb.ca/open-space-theatre/>. 19. iTromboni Chamber Music Concert at Brunswick Street Baptist Church Sept 25 iTromboni is one of Canada's most entertaining and versatile chamber music ensembles. These musicians are unified by their choice of instrument but come from all corners of the nation to form a dynamic quintet better known as the Team Canada of Trombones. Over the course of fifteen years and thousands of performances, this truly Canadian ensemble has traveled the country challenging the barriers and stereotypes that have kept the trombone in the back row of the band for far too long. Innovative by nature, their unique style can best be described as classical with a twist. iTromboni's well-crafted performances include repertoire from baroque to romantic, operatic to jazz, popular to original compositions, all carefully chosen to showcase the versatility of the instruments and the high-quality musicianship of each artist. The group continues to play to rave reviews for audiences from coast to coast and takes centre stage at some of Canada's most prestigious concert venues including the Chan Centre for the Performing Arts in Vancouver, Edmonton's Winspear Centre for Music, Place-des-arts in Montreal and Ottawa's National Arts Centre.

Come join iTromboni at Brunswick Street Baptist Church, located on the corner of York and Brunswick Streets, on Sunday, September 25 at 6:30pm for an evening concert of music that the entire family can enjoy. There will be a free will offering, and a reception to follow the show. Back to top.

20. Potted Potter at The Playhouse Sept 27

September 27, 8pm & September 28, 7pm
Potted Potter

All seven Harry Potter books in seventy hilarious minutes! Potted Potter, the New York and West End smash hit, has garnered rave reviews from New York to Nashville, Chicago to Mexico City and Critics' Picks from the New York Times, New York Magazine, Time Out London, Boston Globe, Chicago Daily Herald and the New York Post! Playing to sold out houses all over the world, Potted Potter takes on the ultimate challenge of condensing all seven Harry Potter books (and a real life game of Quidditch) into seventy hilarious minutes. This fantastically funny show features all your favorite characters, a special appearance from a fire-breathing dragon, endless costumes, brilliant songs, ridiculous props and a generous helping of Hogwarts magic! Even if you don't know the difference between a Horcrux and a Hufflepuff, Potted Potter will make you roar with laughter. This brilliant family entertainment is perfect for ages six to Dumbledore (who is very old indeed). Back to top.

21. Music on the Hill presents Dissonant Grooves at Memorial Hall Sept 28

On Wednesday, September 28 at 12pm Music on the Hill presents Dissonant Grooves at Memorial Hall, located at 9 Bailey Drive. Admission to this concert is free.

Our Emerging Artist in Residence, clarinetist David Scott, invites you to a program of rhythmic and groovy virtuoso music from the 20th and 21st Centuries. Incorporating the talents of violinist Nadia Francavilla, cellist Emily Kennedy, and pianist Heather Fyffe Dunham, this free noon hour program will put a spring in your step for the rest of the day! Repertoire will include the Quartet, by Peter Schiekele and the Breakdown Tango, by John Mackey.

22. Marty Haggard at The Playhouse Sept 29

September 29, 7:30pm

Fredericton Playhouse presents Marty Haggard: A Tribute to My Dad Merle Haggard

Marty Haggard is the son of famed country singer-songwriter Merle Haggard, who passed away on April 6, 2016. Marty toured with his father during the '80s, singing harmony and playing guitar. In 1986 he released the song "Trains Make Me Lonesome," which garnered him a nomination for Top New Male Vocalist from the Academy of Country Music. Marty's love for his dad's music inspired him to begin a project titled A Tribute to Merle Haggard in 2010, which has led to two Merle Haggard tribute albums. Marty has spent the past five years performing across the United States and Canada, and throughout the UK. He is currently working on a new album of his own music.

25. The Case of the Blank Canvas Bandit: A Murder Mystery & Killer Fundraiser at the Beaverbrook Art Gallery Oct 1

On Saturday, October 1, starting at 7pm, join us at the Beaverbrook Art Gallery for an evening of intrigue and deception. The Case of the Blank Canvas Bandit is a murder mystery specially written and performed for this occasion by the creative artists at Theatre New Brunswick. Archetypes and larger-than-life characters will 'set the stage', and guests will act as detectives to crack the case. Clues, evidence and surprises will show up throughout the Gallery to guide...or...to misguide...

Guests will receive a complimentary beverage, 'deadly' appetizers will be served, and 'to die for' items will be up for grabs in the silent auction. Door Prizes will be drawn! Proceeds will support programming for children and families at the Beaverbrook Art Gallery such as Art for Tots, the After School Art Outreach Program and Family Art Workshops.

Tickets are $65 each and include a professional theatre performance, a complimentary beverage, appetizers, and the chance to win fantastic door prizes. We're looking forward to a fun-filled evening and hope that you will join us. Please email development@beaverbrookartgallery.org or call 458-2028 for more information. Visit <http://beaverbrookartgallery.org/en/visit/the-case-of-the-blank-canvas-bandit> to purchase tickets online. Back to top.

26. Council of the Arts Fredericton Performing Arts Scholarship Recipient Announced

Alex Donovan of Fredericton has been selected to receive the Council of the Arts Fredericton Performing Arts Scholarship for 2016. The award is valued at $5000. A graduate of the University of New Brunswick, Mr. Donovan pursued a Minor in drama production while attending UNB, directing his first full-length show there. After graduation, he formed a theatre company, Imaginary Circumstances, and directed a number of productions in association with Theatre New Brunswick. He has also directed works for the Notable Acts Theatre Festival in Fredericton for the past five years.

Mr. Donovan has just entered the Master of Fine Arts in Directing program at the University of Alberta in Edmonton. Only two students per year are selected for admission to this program. On completion of his current studies, Mr. Donovan will be qualified to direct theatre at a highly professional level and to teach theatre at the university level.

Council of the Arts Fredericton presented quality performances to Fredericton audiences from 1978 until 2006 through its ONSTAGE and KIDSTAGE programs and encouraged young people in their study of the performing arts through awards and scholarships. The Performing Arts Scholarship was created in June 2007 and is managed through a designated fund agreement with the Fredericton Community Foundation. Information on the Performing Arts Scholarship is available through the Fredericton Community Foundation at www.fredfdn.ca. Back to top.

2. TNB Theatre School Registration Now Open

The Theatre New Brunswick Theatre School is now welcoming registrations for all its fall/winter programs. Theatre New Brunswick Theatre School, endowed by the Stephen Graham Bird Trust, is dedicated to providing outstanding theatre training that educates and awakens the imaginations of young New Brunswickers. Founded in 1999, we offer young theatre artists first-class training in acting, singing, voice, and dance in a fun and supportive environment. We train over 300 aspiring performers each year, attracting students from as far away as Toronto, Maine, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island.

Whether you are the recreational student who does it "just for fun" or the motivated student with stars in your eyes, we offer a wide variety of training opportunities for young people ages 5 to adult. Students benefit from training with Theatre New Brunswick Theatre School by developing:

- Creativity
- Imagination
- Self-confidence
- Performance Skills
- Physical Fitness
- Lifelong Friendships

3. Fest Forward: Call for Submissions

From November 18-20, 2016, the Charlotte Street Arts Centre will host the 6th annual emerging musician's festival now known as Fest Forward, formally known as NB-ME. The festival shines a spotlight on the impressive, emerging music scene that's growing in New Brunswick while providing a select group of emerging musicians with extensive professional development opportunities to help them propel into their budding music careers. Fest Forward is ready and raring to host and support diverse new musical talent from across our beautiful province.

The Charlotte Street Arts Centre is now seeking submissions from emerging New Brunswick musicians. Selected applicants will participate in photo shoots, professional recording sessions, bio-writing, radio and video interviews, and more. It's a whirlwind weekend intensive with industry professionals and stakeholders, helping motivated young artists prepare electronic press kits (EPK's) and develop their professional practice, culminating in a performance showcase.

All musicians and music groups that are looking to take the next step in their professional development are encouraged to apply between August 4 and September 23, 2016. Late or incomplete submissions will not be accepted.
