3. Music Runs Through It presents Scott Cook at Corked Wine Bar Sept 29

Music Runs Through It presents Scott Cook at Corked Wine Bar on Thursday, September 29 at 8pm. Tickets are available at Corked Wine Bar and Tony's Music Box.

A roots balladeer with rare personal warmth, Edmonton's Scott Cook has managed to distill the stories collected over nearly a decade of incessant touring across Canada, the USA, Europe, Asia, and Australia into straight-talking, keenly observant verse. Road-worn, painfully honest, and deeply human, his tunes weave together folk, roots, blues, soul and country with spacious arrangements on fingerstyle guitar and clawhammer banjo. His fourth release One More Time Around was nominated for a Canadian Folk Music Award, and its opening track "Pass It Along" won the Folk and Acoustic category in the 2013 UK Songwriting Contest, with UK magazine Maverick Country naming him "one of Canada's most inspiring and imaginative storytellers". He's currently on another around-the-world tour in support of his fifth CD, Go Long, continuing to log over 160 shows and a dozen music festivals every year. All the hard miles notwithstanding, he still believes that songs can change your life, and your life can change the world. For more information visit <http://www.scottcook.net/>.

Upcoming shows at Corked Wine Bar:

- Ryan Cook - Thursday, October 20
- Mike Plume - Thursday, October 27
- Chris Colepaugh - Thursday, November 3
- Ian Sherwood - Friday, November 18

4. Tenor Marcel d'Entremont at Christ Church Parish Church Sept 30

The public is invited to Christ Church Parish Church on Friday, September 30 at 7:30pm for an exciting concert by twenty-five year old tenor, Marcel d'Entremont as part of his seven-city Young Artist Tour throughout the Maritime Provinces. Marcel d'Entremont has been praised as an expressive singer with a round and free voice. Marcel is a recent graduate of the Masters of Music program at the University of Toronto where he studied with the renowned soprano, Wendy Nielsen. His many accolades include the Portia White Award, four-time recipient of the Halifax Kiwanis Music Festival Rose Bowl and second place in the Hal Leonard International Vocal Competition. In 2014 Marcel won the Grand Prize for overall best performer at the National Music Festival of Canada.

Last April Marcel was chosen from four accomplished competitors at the Atlantic Young Artist Competition to perform as the 2016 Atlantic Young Artist. Marcel will be assisted at the piano by Dakota Scott-Digout. Marcel's program will be selected from works by Britten, Ravel, Weber, Schubert, Clara and Robert Schumann, Liszt, Copland, and Canadian composers Rhodenizer and Ridout.

Pianist, Dakota Scott-Digout is presently a student at Mount Allison University studying with Dr. Stephen Runge. Dakota has participated in masterclasses with world-renowned artists such as André Laplante and Measha Brueggengosman. He is heard often as a soloist as well as a collaborative pianist with vocalists and instrumentalists.

General admission is $10 at the door, or $5 for students. Contact Ross Simonds at 474-2905 for more information on this concert. For more information on the Young Artist Series please visit www.cfmta.org. Back to top.

5. Cinema Politica presents Life is Waiting: Referendum and Resistance in Western Sahara Sept 30

Cinema Politica presents Last Chance on Friday, September 16 at 7pm at Conserver House, located at 180 Saint John Street. All are welcome; films are free, but donations are encouraged to cover screening costs and to fund local organizing efforts committed to social change. The venue is accessible but the washrooms are located up the stairs.

Life is Waiting: Referendum and Resistance in Western Sahara

Iara lee (2015)

Forty years after its people were promised freedom by departing Spanish rulers, Western Sahara remains Africa's last colony. This film chronicles the everyday violence experienced by Sahrawis living under Moroccan occupation and voices their struggle for self-determination through creative resistance and non-violence. With discussant Dr. Samira Farhoud.

6. Sisters in Spirit Screening & Workshop with Jennifer Brant Sept 30

On September 30 from 9:30 to 11:30am, Jennifer Brant will host a screening of Sisters in Spirit, accompanied by a workshop, in the Kinsella Auditorium in McCain Hall on the STU Campus.

The documentary Sisters in Spirit was created by Indigenous filmmaker, Nick Printup. The film explores the importance of a national inquiry into Canada's Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls. It won Best Documentary and Best Cinematography at Niagara College's Film, Radio and Television Awards. It features various commentators including Sophie Grégoire Trudeau. The film is screening for special audiences, including the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Jennifer Brant, co-editor of Forever Loved: Exposing the Hidden Crisis of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls in Canada, will host the screening as part of a workshop titled Reconciliation through Education. This film screening and workshop is being presented by Women's Studies and Gender Studies at STU in collaboration with the School of Education at STU, the Law in Society Program at UNB, the New Brunswick Media Co-op and the Canadian Law and Society Association.

Refreshments will be available at 9am while supplies last. The doors will close at 9:30am for an Elders' opening. Back to top.

10. Mark Currie at Ringo's Oct 1

Growing up on Johnny Cash, Elvis Presley and gospel, Mark was influenced from a young age by vocal driven music. After discovering the music of Soundgarden, Pearl Jam, and Alice in chains in the early 90s, it was then that he decided to learn how to play guitar. It took him 15 years to gain the confidence to perform publicly, but has since enjoyed playing in various music festivals, venues and open mics around New Brunswick. As primarily a cover artist, he loves to perform songs by artists ranging from Pink Floyd to Neil Young to Tool.

This concert takes place at Ringo's Bar and Grill on October 1 from 7 to 9pm. There is no cover charge. Back to top.

11. OPUS Craft Village Historical Display Oct 1

Many Frederictonians remember fondly the ambitious OPUS Craft Village which, between 1974 and 1978, offered a maker's space and store for crafts, in a striking collection of buildings across from the Mactaquac Provincial Park.

On Saturday, October 1 between 12-4pm, the Keswick Ridge Historical Society will host a display of remarkable work from the range of craftspeople who worked at the Village. The work, as well as photographs and documents about the Village, will be on display in the recently restored McKeen's Corner General Store, now at 112 Route 616, just beside the old Superior School. This display is part of the Historical Society's annual fall event – which, this year, will include an "antiques roadshow" and a pie auction.

For more information, check out the Historical Society's Web site <http://keswickridge.ca/> or Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/keswickridgehistoricalsociety>. This is a great stop if you're going to be on the Ridge to pick apples or otherwise enjoy New Brunswick's fall glory. Back to top.

12. Cineplex's National Theatre Live presents Shakespeare's Globe Theatre's Merchant of Venice Oct 1

Jonathan Pryce, whose accolades include Game of Thrones, Wolf Hall and Pirates of the Caribbean, provides an enigmatic performance in this iconic battle between greed and love. Pryce's Shylock is not only convincing in its duality but helps provide additional gravitas to Munby's moving production. This tale of prejudice and destructive self-interest paired with Pryce's memorable interpretation makes this a must-see

The live performance is presented on Saturday, October 1 at 12:30pm. All performances take place at Cineplex, Regent Mall. For more information visit: <http://www.cineplex.com/Events/Stage> or call 458-9704. Back to top.

14. Monday Night Film Series presents Sunset Song (Oct 3) & Love & Friendship (Oct 10)

October 3, 2016 - 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Sunset Song

Terence Davies

135 mins

UK/Luxembourg

2015

English

Cast: Peter Mullan, Jack Greenlees, Agyness Deyn, Kevin Guthrie

Terence Davies (The Deep Blue Sea, The House of Mirth) has created some of the greatest British cinema of the past 40 years, and has now realized a long-held dream with this adaptation of Lewis Grassic Gibbon's classic 1932 novel (a staple in Scottish classrooms). Chronicling the joys and sorrows of Chris Guthrie (Agyness Deyn), the daughter of a farming family in northeast Scotland, Sunset Song is an exquisitely shot meditation on a way of life that has disappeared into the mists of the past.

Scratching a livelihood out of the harsh terrain, the Guthrie family cowers in obedient fear of its patriarch (Peter Mullan, Sunshine on Leith, Riff-Raff), a man prone to sudden and ferocious bursts of anger. Along with her brother Will (Jack Greenlees), the beautiful and intelligent Chris dreams of freedom and escape. When a surprising turn of events leaves Chris in charge of the farm, she rises to the occasion and is soon running her affairs singlehandedly. Proud and self-sufficient, Chris finds love with her neighbour, the handsome young Ewan Tavendale (Kevin Guthrie, The Legend of Barney Thomson, Sunshine on Leith) - but the shadow of the Great War soon reaches even this remote corner of Europe, and Chris' home and happiness are threatened by forces beyond her control.

Applying his lyrical "memory realism" style to the simultaneously stunning and forbidding rural landscape, Davies makes every scene like something out of an Old Masters canvas. But while he finds great beauty in the world that Chris makes for herself, he well knows that nothing is permanent, and that the world outside can be harsh and unkind. Depicting both unexpected bliss and crushing sadness with incomparable sensitivity, Davies has created yet another heartbreakingly beautiful ode to a time long gone.

October 10, 2016 - 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Love & Friendship

92 mins

Whit Stillman

IRELAND/NETHERLANDS/FRANCE/USA

2016

English

Cast: Kate Beckinsale, Chloe Sevigny, Stephen Fry

Writer-director Whit Stillman departs from the milieu of the contemporary New York upper crust that he so memorably explored in such films as Damsels in Distress, The Last Days of Disco and Metropolitan for this sharp-tongued and riotously funny examination of 18th century polite society. Adapting Jane Austen's long-unpublished epistolary novella Lady Susan, Stillman creates a period piece whose spirit is unmistakably modern.

Love & Friendship revolves around the beautiful and cunning Lady Susan Vernon (Kate Beckinsale, The Aviator, The Last Days of Disco), a recent widow who engineers all manner of wonderfully devious plots to bend the world to her will and land herself a wealthy new husband. Taking up residence at Churchill, her in-laws' estate, she sets her sights on the dashing Reginald De Courcy (Xavier Samuel, Fury, Anonymous), and soon has him wrapped around her little finger. However, her plans are derailed when her beautiful daughter Frederica (Morfydd Clark, Madame Bovary) turns up at Churchill after being dismissed from boarding school.

Fearing that Frederica will turn Reginald's head, Lady Susan sets out to obtain her daughter a suitor of her own. Enter Sir James Martin (Tom Bennett), a well-meaning but witless older man who is utterly confounded by the fact that there is neither a church nor a hill at Churchill. Brilliantly played by Beckinsale, Lady Susan possesses a confidence, audacity, and unapologetic dishonesty ("Facts are horrid things," she laments after being caught in a lie) that paradoxically endow her with a winning charm, and make her an Austen heroine to rival Elizabeth Bennett and Emma Woodhouse. If you're looking for a smart, fun, and scruple-free romp, Love & Friendship is definitely your cup of tea.

This year, 30 limited release, independent foreign & Canadian films will be shown. Admission is $7/film, but a yearly film society membership reduces admission cost to $4/film. The series is open to all. Memberships are available at Tilley 102 every Monday night. For further info, contact NB Film Co-op at 455-1632 or info@nbfilmcoop.com, or visit <http://www.nbfilmcoop.com/exhibition/monday-night-film-series>. 17. Atlantic Ballet Theatre of Canada presents Ghosts of Violence Oct 5

On Wednesday, October 05, 2016 at 7:30pm the Fredericton Playhouse, in partnership with the Mi'kmaq-Wolastoqey Centre Presents Ghosts of Violence, performed by the Atlantic Ballet Theatre of Canada. Ticket prices are $38 regular; $34 for members; and $16 for students (all prices +HST).

This ballet has been creatively adapted to honour the Indigenous women of the Wabanaki Territory – the Mi'kmaq, Wolastoqiyik, and the Passamaquoddy. In the spirit of authentic reconciliation, Igor Dobrovolskiy, Co-Founder and Artistic Director of Atlantic Ballet Theatre of Canada and Susan Chalmers-Gauvin have collaborated with faculty and volunteers to infuse Indigenous knowledge, culture and symbolism within Ghosts of Violence to bring attention to the issue for indigenous cultures and the broader community.

A showcase for the artistry and versatility of the critically acclaimed dancers of the Company, Ghosts of Violence is an emotionally charged work inspired by the lives of women who have lost their lives at the hands of an intimate partner. It is an innovative and poignant call for awareness, understanding and action. Through evocative lighting, theatre, music and multi-media, the ballet captures the memory of these silent victims and tells stories of their struggles, their hopes, their joys and our loss. This unique version of the ballet will also feature dancers and singers from the Mi'kmaq-Wolastoqey Centre. Back to top.

18. The Mi'kmaq-Wolastoqey Centre & Sisters in Spirit present Red Shawl Campaign Oct 5-7

The Mi'kmaq-Wolastoqey Centre joins all Sisters in Spirit collaborators to bring attention to the plight of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women in Canada, and to honour these women and their families. In our 2nd Red Shawl Campaign, during the month of October, community and university members, students and faculty work together to provide hope and healing for families and to reclaim justice for these women through this honouring and public awareness. We invite all members of our communities to participate in the actions that take place in the greater Fredericton area throughout October.

23. The Product Comedy Tour with Headliner Gavin Stephens Oct 8

The Product Comedy Tour is a hilarious, one of a kind stand-up comedy show that is touring all over the Maritimes. This is world-class humour with the goal to find real fans in real communities, towns, and cities. We keep ticket prices low and entertainment value high so people will invite friends for one heck of a party.

Headliner Gavin Stephens has filmed multiple one-man comedy specials for CTV and the Comedy Network, and recently performed with Reggie Watts at Just for Laughs. Not content with just being the star of Canada's biggest nerd-friendly comedy night NERDGASM, Gavin was also named Best Stand-Up Comedian in NOW Magazine's Readers' Choice Poll in 2010. For five seasons he was a lead actor and writer on the Gemini nominated sketch show Comedy Inc. on CTV. A multi-media sensation, Gavin has appeared at international festivals like Montreal's Just For Laughs and Austin's SXSW alongside indie comedy legends Margaret Cho, Janeane Garofalo, and Marc Maron. He has also appeared on CBC's The Debaters as well as being a finalist in the SiriusXM Top comic competition.

25. UNB Andrews Initiative presents Serious Play Lecture with Jacqueline Lloyd Smith Oct 12

UNB's Andrews Initiative is pleased to announce a free, interactive lecture with Jacqueline Lloyd Smith, a world leader in the LEGO® SERIOUS PLAY™ methodology. SERIOUS PLAY™ uses LEGO® bricks in creative ways to encourage team building, problem solving, and strategy generating. This interactive lecture will be held on Wednesday, October 12, 2016, at 7:30pm in the Wu Conference Centre.

In this interactive lecture, participants will work with LEGO® bricks to unlock creativity. Combining visual, auditory, and kinesthetic learning styles, the SERIOUS PLAY™ methodology teaches people to think with their hands and better communicate their ideas. Jacqueline's lecture will demonstrate the ways creativity and innovation can work together to inspire higher-level thinking and problem solving strategies.

Jacquie has over twenty years' experience working in private business, government, and not-for-profit organizations. During her career, she has worked as a business owner, a director of operations, a management consultant, a conflict practitioner, a university professor and a clinician. She has worked closely with a variety of organizations, developing innovative programs to help them navigate through change. She is also a skilled facilitator and holds a diploma in LEGO® SERIOUS PLAY™ methodology from the LEGO Group in Denmark.

As part of the UNB-wide “Year of Creativity” activities, the Andrews Initiative has a full slate of activities on the theme of “Creativity & Inspiration”. Stay tuned for further announcements. The Andrews Initiative was created by UNB president emeritus John McLaughlin, and launched in 2011. The Andrews Initiative offers quality learning opportunities in contemporary topics for the 21st Century. 2. Fall 2016 Studio Classes with Kathy Tidswell

- October 5 or October 8: Thread Painting
Learn the basics of free motion embroidery to create landscapes. Complete a sampler as you learn to make grasses, leaves, flowers, weeds, trees, etc. You can spend the entire day perfecting your skills or start a simple landscape.
- October 12 or October 15: Free Motion Embroidery Appliqués
Learn to make appliqués totally from thread using free motion embroidery. Choose between a black capped chickadee or several flowers. These appliqués can be attached to quilts, framed as art work or used on wearable art.
- November 2 or November 5: Painting Backgrounds for Quilts or Embroideries
Learn to paint using Pebeo setacolor fabric paints on cotton or embroidery fabrics. Create your own fabric for a special landscape, shaded fabric for a flower you wish to appliqué, yardage for a special sky or backgrounds for embroidery. You will learn how to mix colours and apply the paints. Special effects techniques such as sun printing and using salt will also be explored. A demonstration using Derwent Inkense pencils will also be given.
- November 9 or November 12: Techniques to Create Dimension
You will learn to make 3D leaves and create textured bark to add drama to your wall-hangings
- November 23 or November 26: Christmas Appliqué Project (to be determined)
An original appliqué design will be provided.

To see photos of the classes visit www.kathytidswell.com and go to Upcoming Events which is on the right hand side of the homepage. Classes are $45 each and run from 10am- 3:30pm at my home studio and gallery, located at 683 Route 104, Burtts Corner. Comprehensive notes provided for all classes. For more information phone 363-3560 or email kathy@kathytidswell.com. Back to top.
