10. Monday Night Film Series presents Love & Friendship (Oct 10) & A Bigger Splash (Oct 17)

October 10, 2016 - 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Love & Friendship

92 mins

Whit Stillman

IRELAND/NETHERLANDS/France/USA

2016

English

Cast: Kate Beckinsale, Chloe Sevigny, Stephen Fry

Writer-director Whit Stillman departs from the milieu of the contemporary New York upper crust that he so memorably explored in such films as Damsels in Distress, The Last Days of Disco and Metropolitan for this sharp-tongued and riotously funny examination of 18th century polite society. Adapting Jane Austen's long-unpublished epistolary novella Lady Susan, Stillman creates a period piece whose spirit is unmistakably modern.

Love & Friendship revolves around the beautiful and cunning Lady Susan Vernon (Kate Beckinsale, The Aviator, The Last Days of Disco), a recent widow who engineers all manner of wonderfully devious plots to bend the world to her will and land herself a wealthy new husband. Taking up residence at Churchill, her in-laws' estate, she sets her sights on the dashing Reginald De Courcy (Xavier Samuel, Fury, Anonymous), and soon has him wrapped around her little finger. However, her plans are derailed when her beautiful daughter Frederica (Morfydd Clark, Madame Bovary) turns up at Churchill after being dismissed from boarding school.

Fearing that Frederica will turn Reginald's head, Lady Susan sets out to obtain her daughter a suitor of her own. Enter Sir James Martin (Tom Bennett), a well-meaning but witless older man who is utterly confounded by the fact that there is neither a church nor a hill at Churchill. Brilliantly played by Beckinsale, Lady Susan possesses a confidence, audacity, and unapologetic dishonesty ("Facts are horrid things," she laments after being caught in a lie) that paradoxically endow her with a winning charm, and make her an Austen heroine to rival Elizabeth Bennett and Emma Woodhouse. If you're looking for a smart, fun, and scruple-free romp, Love & Friendship is definitely your cup of tea.

October 17, 2016 - 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

A Bigger Splash

ITALY/FRANCE

2016

English, Italian with English subtitles

Cast: Tilda Swinton, Matthias Schoenaerts, Ralph Fiennes, Dakota Johnson

In A Bigger Splash, the lives of a high profile couple, a famous rock star (Tilda Swinton) and a filmmaker (Matthias Schoenaerts), vacationing and recovering on the idyllic sun-drenched and remote Italian island of Pantelleria, are disrupted by the unexpected visit of an old friend (Ralph Fiennes) and his daughter (Dakota Johnson) - creating a whirlwind of jealousy, passion and, ultimately, danger for everyone involved.

This year, 30 limited release, independent, foreign, and Canadian films will be shown. Admission is $7/film, but a yearly film society membership reduces admission cost to $4/film. 13. Letters from Beaulieu Book Launch with author Melynda Jarratt at the Provincial Archives Oct 12

During the Second World War, hundreds of New Brunswick woodsmen joined the Canadian Forestry Corps to log the Scottish Highlands as part of the Canadian war effort. Patrick "Pat" Hennessy of Bathurst was one of them. While in Scotland, Pat regularly corresponded with his family in New Brunswick. Drawing from this unique collection of more than three hundred letters, as well as hundreds of archival documents and photographs, Melynda Jarratt provides a rare glimpse of what life was like for Canadian servicemen overseas and for their relatives at home.

16. Music Runs Through It presents The Hypochondriacs and Pat Maloney at Wilser's Room Oct 13

On Thursday, October 13 at 7pm Music Runs Through It presents The Hypochondriacs with Pat Maloney at Wilser's Room. Tickets are $10, and are available at Tony's Music Box.

Hometown favourites, The Hypochondriacs are coming off an amazing run of great summer festival gigs and looking forward to sharing the bill with Pat. This powerhouse is taking Eastern Canada by storm with their high octane live show, prolific heartfelt ballads, and superb musicianship.

By way of Ontario, Pat Maloney is a Canadian songwriter, a storyteller, and a serious whistler. He's a concerned citizen, with a busted acoustic guitar and a fake bass drum. He's a too-tall, Ottawa ex-pat, singing songs as meaningful as he can muster, with a healthy, self-defaming sense of humor.

Upcoming shows at Corked Wine Bar:

- Ryan Cook - Thursday, October 20
- Mike Plume - Thursday, October 27
- Chris Colepaugh - Thursday, November 3
- Ian Sherwood - Friday, November 18

The murder shocked a country. The verdict divided a province. CBC reporter Bobbi-Jean MacKinnon covered the Oland case from the beginning. In Shadow of Doubt: The Trial of Dennis Oland, she guides readers through the twists and turns of the story, from the discovery of the murder through the police investigation to the events of the trial. Chronicling the evidence, including evidence never presented to the jury, she builds the cases for the defence and the prosecution, leaving the verdict in the hands of the reader.

This “in conversation” event is free and open to the public. Books will be available for purchase. Back to top.

25. Micah Erenberg Band & The Wilder Sons at Grimross Brewing Co. Oct 15

Come see the Micah Erenberg Band and The Wilder Sons at Grimross Brewing Co., located at 600 Bishop Drive on October 15. Doors open at 7:30pm and the show begins at 8pm. Admission is $10 at the door.

Micah Erenberg is a storyteller, a singer/songwriter, an engineer, a producer, a multi-instrumentalist, a front man in a rock band, and a side man for anyone else. Micah's music has been described as "bedroom country/pop", with production qualities reminiscent of Beck and story-based lyrics reminiscent of Townes Van Zandt. His "tell all" style of writing makes for an incredibly captivating sound, and his songs cover all bases from sad and serious to happy and downright goofy. Micah continually finds ways to reinvent the art of song-writing using a blend of honest lyrics, catchy melodies and unique musical arrangements. Add the full band into the mix and you get the same songs in a whole new light. Like a well-oiled machine, the Micah Erenberg Band jams their way through meticulously rehearsed material, often improvising through instrumental sections for as long as they feel the need to, and yet somehow hitting every stop and chord change along the way.

Expect to be fully engaged in the show, as their stage presence is nothing short of personal, with the band feeding off the audience almost as much as they do each other. Everything is planned and yet nothing is planned; they don't play to the audience, they play for the audience. This year Micah is set to release his debut album, Poor Mic's Toe, which was almost entirely self-recorded and self-produced at a cabin in his home town of Matlock, MB. The album is backed by the Micah Erenberg Band and features a diverse guest list of some of the finest musicians on Manitoba's scene.

26. odd sundays at Corked Wine Bar: Jane Spavold Tims & Harris Sullivan Oct 16

Last season, after the departure of its governess, Allison Calvern, odd sundays was taken over by a trio of upstarts inexperienced at best in the art of herding cats but determined to further the reputation and success of Fredericton's long-standing poetry (and other) reading series. Now, the newest season of odd sundays is upon us.

On Sunday, October 16 at 2pm we will gather at Corked Wine Bar, located at 83 Regent Street. The featured readers will be Jane Tims and Harris Sullivan. Come and have a beverage, and support our city's literary efforts.

Jane Spavold Tims is happy to read from her book within easy reach, poems and drawings about eating local, wild foods, published by Chapel Street Editions in Woodstock. Jane lives in rural New Brunswick and is a botanist who often includes natural themes in her work. Jane is a member of the Writers' Federation of New Brunswick and a member of local writing groups Fictional Friends and Wolf Tree Writers.

They call Harris Sullivan, "The Bongo Poet". That's because he plays bongo drums to spice up his public readings from his two books of poems. A native of Richibucto, he is a retired award-winning journalist who worked 37 years in his profession in Moncton, Toronto, Montreal, and Halifax. Harris has been on the spoken word scene across the Maritimes for nearly five years. His material is all over the map—love poems, sex poems, breakup poems, scathing commentaries on our somewhat broken world, reflections about his parents and a lot of humour. And there's a touch of music. In addition to the bongos, he sings some of his poems in his readings, certainly making him one of the unique spoken word poets in this region.

Finally, we would like to recognise the following for their on-going support of odd sundays: UNB English, STU English, Westminster Books, Charlotte St. Arts Centre, Fredericton Public Library, and all of our faithful patrons. Back to top.

30. The Barr Brothers with Laura Sauvage at the Charlotte Street Arts Centre Oct 18

In partnership with The Capital Complex we are very excited to announce The Barr Brothers with Laura Sauvage on October 18 at the Charlotte St Arts Centre.

Built around the evocative vocals and song writing of Brad Barr and the sturdy and studious drumming of his brother Andrew, Montreal-based Americana/folk-rock quartet the Barr Brothers were formed in 2006 after the dissolution of the siblings' rock trio The Slip. Originally based out of Boston, Massachusetts, the Barrs spent the bulk of the 1990s touring with The Slip up to 2004.

Laura Sauvage is the solo project of Les Hay Babies' Vivanne Roy. The idea for a solo project came to Vivanne Roy during the last three years on the road with Les Hay Babies. The band was garnering success wherever they went; winning les Francouvertes in Montreal in 2013, getting instant fans in France, Switzerland, Germany and Belgium on three consecutive tours, receiving multiple ECMA nominations and winning the French Songwriter of the Year award at the Canadian Folk Music Awards. The fact that she had no deep roots anywhere, travelling from hotel room to hotel room in often unfamiliar cities, inspired new songs. Thus was born Vivianne's solo project, Laura Sauvage. Her recent release Extraordinormal is available now on iTunes.

Tickets are available online at <https://etixnow.com/events/the-barr-brothers/oct-18-2016/charlotte-street-arts-centre> (Use Promo Code BARR2016 at checkout to receive 4 tickets for the price of 3). Tickets are also available in person through the Etixnow kiosk located in the Isaac's Way Restaurant Building, located at 649 Queen Street. Back to top.

32. Truth and Honour Book Launch at the Fredericton Public Library Oct 19

Join author Greg Marquis at the Bibliothèque publique de Fredericton Public Library on Wednesday, October 19 for the Fredericton launch of Truth and Honour: The Death of Richard Oland and the Trial of Dennis Oland. A reception will begin at 7pm.

Truth and Honour explores the 2011 murder of Saint John businessman Richard Oland, of the prominent family that owns Moosehead Breweries, the ensuing police investigation and the arrest, trial, and conviction of the victim's son Dennis Oland for second-degree murder.

Oland's trial would be the most publicized in New Brunswick history. What the trial judge called "a family tragedy of Shakespearean proportions," this real-life murder mystery included adultery, family dysfunction, largely circumstantial evidence, allegations of police incompetence, a high-powered legal defence, and a verdict that shocked the community.

Author Greg Marquis, a professor of Canadian history at the University of New Brunswick Saint John, leads readers through the case, from the discovery of the crime to the conviction and sentencing of the defendant. Offering multiple perspectives, Truth and Honour explores this question: was Dennis Oland responsible for the death of his father?

This event is free and open to the public. Copies of the book will be available for purchase. For more information visit: <https://www.facebook.com/events/1680852512234007/>. Back to top.

- Verdi's *La Traviata de Verdi - Tuesday, November 29, 2016
One of the most celebrated works of the lyric repertoire, Verdi's La Traviata is an opera based on the novel La Dame aux camélias by Alexandre Dumas Junior. This romantic drama set against poignant musical realism, tells the improbable love story between a famous Parisian courtesan and her young idealistic lover. Passion, duty, and jealousy fight a heated battle in which personal sacrifice becomes the ultimate gift of love. In this captivating adaptation by Oriol Tomas, Verdi's immortal music is performed by the cream of Canada's new operatic generation. This concert features the works of female composers, pioneers of the modern recital that were acknowledged yet largely overlooked. Though their timid voices grew alongside the giants of music history, Clara Schumann, Fanny Mendelssohn, and Alma Mahler made invaluable contributions to composition and the vocal repertoire. Their work has paved the way for 20th and 21st Century female composers, such as Canadian Ana Sokolovic. Soprano Magali Simard-Galdès and pianist Olivier Hébert-Bouchard will present a repertoire that is bold yet accessible with a feminine flare. Punctuated by anecdotes on the lives, loves, and losses of these women, this performance unites their passion for the voice.
